MEDIA INFORMATION

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM PRESS BOX
TCU's press box in the new Amon G. Carter Stadium opened with the start of the 2012 season. The area is located in the northwest corner of the Club/Press Box Level (2). Only those credentialed members of the media will be granted access.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
The Amon G. Carter Stadium press box can be accessed from the main Concourse Level (1) via elevators located on the northwest corner of the stadium.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
All credential requests for home TCU football games will only be accepted through an online website (SportsSystems.com/TCU). Please visit the site for complete instructions on submitting the application form. All credential requests for an outlet must be made at one time, and only those applications submitted by an outlet's sports editor or sports director will be considered. Requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact Deanna Damon, TCU Athletics Media Relations administrative assistant, at (817) 257-7969.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL PICKUP
Season credentials will be available for pickup prior to the first game at the weekly media luncheon in the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex as well as the ticket office located in the north endzone of Amon G. Carter Stadium. No credentials will be mailed after Tuesday preceding the game. Thereafter, credentials may be picked up on game day at Media Will Call located in the ticket booth situated between Gates 2 and 3 at the southwest entrance of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

MEDIA PARKING
Media parking requests will be accommodated on a space-available basis. The main media parking lot will be located in Lot 1A, which is south of Amon G. Carter Stadium across Bellaire Drive North. Other media will be located in a lot on the east side of campus. Media parking passes cannot be picked up or left at will call on game day.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Complete stats, scoring summaries, running play-by-play, quickie stats and post-game notes and quotes are provided by TCU Athletics Media Relations staff. Pre-game food service is available beginning approximately two hours prior to kickoff, while beverages are available throughout the contest. This service is provided as a courtesy to working media. In addition, concession areas are available within the stadium confines. Media credentials will not allow individuals access to public food and refreshments in the Amon G. Carter Stadium Club.

WIRELESS INTERNET
Wireless Internet is available in the Amon G. Carter Stadium press box as well as for postgame filing in the Four Sevens Team Room. Login information can be obtained via your seat tag or through a media relations staff member.

WEEKLY NOTES, RELEASES, STATS
All TCU game notes, news releases and statistics can be found on the department's website at GoFrogs.com.

SCOUTING PASSES
Professional scouts may obtain credentials through TCU's Athletics Media Relations Office. Scouts will be issued seating in the press box on a space-available basis.

MULTIMEDIA
More information on TCU football, as well the university's entire athletics program, can be accessed online at GoFrogs.com. Up-to-the-minute updates can be accessed via Twitter by following @TCUFootball and @TCU_Athletics.

TIMEOUT POLICY
All electronic timeouts will be scheduled in accordance with Big 12 Conference-approved guidelines.

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKROOM
TCU debuted a new photography workroom in 2012 located at Field Level (B1) near the entrance to the visiting team locker room behind the northwest stands of Amon G. Carter Stadium. Due to limited space, all seats will be assigned by the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office. Those individuals who are not assigned a seat in the photography workroom will be provided space in the press box.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS / VESTS

RADIO BROADCASTS
Amon G. Carter Stadium features several booths equipped for radio broadcast setup, all located in the northwest corner of the Suite Level (3) directly above the Club/Press Box Level (2). Three (3) POTS and one (1) ISDN hook-up are available in the visiting radio booth. Hardwire access from the visiting team locker room to the visiting radio booth is available for use during post-game interviews. Additional lines should be ordered through TCU Connect at (817) 257-4357.

TELEVISION BROADCASTS
TCU's live television appearances will be governed by the existing Big 12 Conference policy and association. All non-conference television appearances originating from Amon G. Carter Stadium must be approved by TCU Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Chris Del Conte. Those TV production crews planning to telecast TCU games may contact the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office for suggestions of catering services to handle the production crew's game day meal arrangements, as these crews are not served through TCU's pre-game media meal service. For information concerning electrical power, hookups and other similar needs, contact TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey at r.bailey@tcu.edu or (817) 257-7009. The TCU Physical Plant can also be of assistance at (817) 257-7955.

TELEVISION BOOTH
The national television booth is located at midfield of the Club/Press Box Level (2). Auxillary booths that can be utilized for secondary television entities when necessary are located alongside the radio booths in the northwest corner of the Suite Level (3), directly above the writing press area.

LOCKER ROOMS
The TCU locker room is closed following games both at home and on the road. The visiting team's post-game press conference is held just outside the new visiting locker room area, located at Field Level (B1) under the northwest stands of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS
Following an approximate 10-minute cooling-off period, TCU head coach Gary Patterson and selected players will conduct interviews in the home post-game media area located in the Four Sevens Team Room of the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex. Enter through the main doors of the Walsh Complex located on the south endzone concourse. Admission to post-game press conferences are limited to those individuals holding media credentials issued by the TCU Media Relations Office. Post-game interviews are arranged through a media relations staff member. Following road games, Patterson and players will be available outside the visitor's locker room. The visiting team press conference area for TCU home games is located directly outside the entrance to the visitor's locker room located at Field Level (B1) behind the northwest stands of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS
To arrange a telephone interview, contact the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office at least one day in advance so that ample time is given to notify the player or coach.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU football, TCU basketball, TCU baseball, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully request that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation–TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname-Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

COVERING PRACTICE
The TCU football team typically conducts workouts between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m, Tuesday through Thursday. The Frogs generally do not practice on Monday. All practices are closed unless specified otherwise. TV crews and photographers are only permitted to shoot practice after receiving permission from the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEWS WITH COACH PATTERSON
Telephone interviews are coordinated through TCU Athletics Media Relations Director Mark Cohen at m.cohen@tcu.edu or (817) 257-5394. Patterson will also be available each Tuesday throughout the season at his weekly media luncheon in the Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex. The luncheons run from noon to 1 p.m. Patterson will also be available for comments following select practice sessions.

INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS
All player interviews must be coordinated through the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office. Media wishing to conduct interviews are encouraged to do so at the TCU Football Media Luncheon each Tuesday (in season) in the Four Sevens Team Room in the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex. The luncheons run from noon until 1 p.m. Interviews may also be obtained before players report to pre-practice meetings or at the conclusion of practice. To schedule an interview, contact the Athletics Media Relations Office before 10 a.m. on the day you wish to conduct the interview. No player will be pulled from the practice field to conduct an interview. Home or cell numbers will not be made available and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE MEDIA RELATIONS
Contact the Big 12 Conference Media Relations Office for any information or questions concerning football in the Big 12. League information is available at Big12sports.com. Primary football contacts for the conference are Bob Burda [(469) 524-1007; bob@big12sports.com] and Joni Lehmann [(469) 524-1022; joni@big12sports.com].

TCU ATHLETICS MEDIA RELATIONS

MARK COHEN, Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations

Mark Cohen is in his 10th year as TCU's assistant athletics director for media relations and primary football contact. Cohen oversees the publicity efforts for the Horned Frogs' 21 sports.

In July 2009, Cohen received the Scoop Hudgins Outstanding SID Award from the All-American Football Foundation. He was TCU's Athletics Department Teammate of the Month in November 2008.

Prior to arriving at TCU in August 2005, Cohen spent 16 years at Wofford College. He was hired as Wofford's sports information director in 1989 by former TCU athletics director Danny Morrison, who was then the Terriers' athletics director. Cohen was promoted to assistant athletics director in January 1992 and to associate athletics director in September 1996.

After graduating from Cal State Fullerton in 1988, Cohen began his career in Texas as an assistant in the University of Houston sports information office. While employed with the Cougars, Cohen also worked in various game-day capacities with the Houston Astros, Houston Oilers and Houston Rockets.

While earning a B.A. degree in communications and a minor in business administration at Cal State Fullerton, Cohen served as the media relations director for the 1988 Titan baseball team which advanced to the College World Series. Cohen and his wife, Sarah, have three sons: David, Adam and Steven. David, a senior at TCU, works as a student intern in the media relations office.

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM

The 2012 season opener against Grambling State marked the opening of TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium after a $164 million rebuild completely funded through donor support.

On Aug. 16, 2010, TCU announced an initial $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium to better enhance the football fan experience, upgrade amenities and transform the historic Fort Worth icon into the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums. With the addition of the east side renovation one year later, the total cost of the project rose to $164 million.

"We must continually provide students the best possible university experience," TCU Chancellor Victor J. Boschini Jr. said. "This includes building facilities to support a vibrant living experience and an outstanding learning environment. I am pleased that over the past five years we have successfully raised funds to improve academics, athletics and student living.

"This stadium renovation, which would not have been possible without the generous support of our donors, for which we are very grateful, will propel us to yet another level of excellence that will positively impact our university as well as the city of Fort Worth. We also are extremely grateful to the Amon G. Carter Foundation for their initial gift of $15 million that made this entire project possible, one that will result in a significantly improved game day experience for all fans."

Construction began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game versus San Diego State on Nov. 13, 2010. The historic south tower structure was first removed prior to the implosion of the iconic west side upper deck of the stadium during the morning of Dec. 5, 2010. Following construction, Amon G. Carter Stadium's seating capacity stood at 45,000.

"We are very grateful to our donors for making this possible," TCU director of intercollegiate athletics Chris Del Conte said. "Having a first-class stadium with all the modern amenities is key in enhancing the student-athlete experience and providing our community with a fabulous venue to enjoy football games.

"I also would like to thank Chancellor Boschini and our Board of Trustees, who are truly the wind beneath our wings on this project. They were behind us every step of the way. Special thanks also go to (former) associate athletics director Davis Babb and head football coach Gary Patterson for their unbelievable fundraising efforts. They are true leaders and team players. We are appreciative of the tremendous support we received on this historic project from TCU and Fort Worth."

TCU began examining the possibility of renovating its stadium in 2006 when Luther King, chairman of TCU's Board of Trustees, appointed Clarence Scharbauer, vice chair of the board, to lead a stadium renovation committee. The committee's invaluable work, along with that of TCU administrators, led to a stadium renovation that lifted the historical icon to a level of national visibility on par with the University's championship-winning football team.

"Having a new stadium will have a great impact on our recruiting," Patterson said. "It helps us take the next step in what we're trying to accomplish as a program, and that's winning a national championship. We want to thank all of our friends for making this stadium possible."

This is the first major renovation to Amon G. Carter Stadium, built in 1930, since the upper deck was added in 1956.

Designed by HKS Sports & Entertainment Group, who most recently completed work on the Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, the renovation greatly enhances the fan experience by improving stadium accessibility, seating and views of the playing field.

The rebuild consisted of:

- Upgraded and new concession stands for better access and reduced wait times
- Elevators and escalators to better facilitate stadium accessibility and crowd flow
- A new, raised seating bowl on the west and north end for enhanced field views
- Upgraded and additional men's and women's restrooms
- Suites, club seating and lounges on the west side of the stadium
- A new press box
- A new playing surface completed in the 2013 offseason

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM

Dan Phillips, AIA, senior designer with HKS, said the design references the 1930s style of Southwestern art deco prevalent throughout Fort Worth and the surrounding region.

"Through research, we discovered that Amon G. Carter Stadium's original design intent incorporated this architectural style," Phillips added. "However, it was not fully realized. The new design blends seamlessly with the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex, the TCU campus and the city of Fort Worth."

Suites and lounges also will reflect the Southwestern art deco as well as the graphics and way-finding signage throughout the stadium. By integrating the university colors, HKS has created a unique look and feel for the renovated Amon G. Carter Stadium. In addition, the north concourse will mirror the south concourse and fans will be able to see the field while walking through either concourse.

"Unlike the majority of major college football facilities in the country, which tuck fan amenities under the seating bowl, the new Amon G. Carter Stadium brings the action on the field into the main concourse, allowing fans to always be connected to the game," Phillips said.

STADIUM HISTORY

When the Frog faithful began to overflow the stands at the team's former home, Clark Field, the TCU Board of Trustees realized that a new stadium was needed for the TCU football program. Thus, the Board of Trustees voted for a new stadium and created the Athletics Committee to study the cost as well as find a way to pay for it.

Momentum for the new stadium hit an all-time high when the Frogs claimed their first Southwest Conference championship on Nov. 30, 1929, when all-conference quarterback Howard Grubbs engineered a late fourth-quarter drive to tie crosstown rival SMU, 7-7. In Francis Schmidt's first season with the Frogs, TCU concluded the season with a 9-0-1 record, and stadium talks began to heat up.

The Athletics Committee recommended that the university begin a "quiet campaign" headed by Fort Worth Star-Telegram owner and publisher Amon G. Carter to raise $150,000 for the stadium that would seat roughly 30,000. The newspaper publisher recommended that Fort Worth residents raise 60 percent of the money for the stadium. Eventually, the sides settled on selling mortgage bonds to construct a $350,000 stadium that would seat 27,000, but could expand to over 60,000.

The TCU Board of Trustees endorsed the settlement, and in 1929, a football stadium began to take shape. Less than one year after beginning construction on the stadium, the Frogs played their first game against the University of Arkansas on Oct. 11, 1930. With Amon G. Carter Stadium at capacity of 22,000, the Frogs defeated the Razorbacks soundly by a 40-0 count, which marked a crowning achievement and the perfect dedicatory battle.

Over the next two decades, several expansions of Amon G. Carter Stadium began to take shape from the end zone to the east grandstand areas. In 1948, construction to east grandstand increased capacity by 8,500 to a total of 30,500 while three years later, 2,500 seats were added to the north end zone to up the total to 33,000. In 1953, the stadium once again expanded to a total capacity of 37,000 following a 4,000-seat expansion to the east grandstands.

Amon G. Carter Stadium reached another milestone in 1956 as a two-level press box and upper deck area was added, which featured a giant 60' x 120' display of the school's logo--the curved Purple and White "TCU." The letters were displayed on the bleacher seats and could be seen when flying over Amon G. Carter Stadium. When construction was completed in 1956, the official capacity of Amon G. Carter Stadium was 46,083--over double what it was when originally constructed.

The newest round of construction did not occur for three decades when the seats in the lower grandstands were removed and replaced by aluminum seats in 1985. The upper deck area followed suit in 1991 when all of its seats were replaced by aluminum seats, which actually decreased the attendance of Amon G. Carter Stadium to a total capacity of 44,008. In addition, the original artificial turf was replaced with natural grass prior to the 1992 season.

In the final two decades prior to the complete renovation in the early 2010s, Amon G. Carter Stadium underwent several facelifts in the form of new facility additions that aided in TCU becoming one of college football's premier programs.

The process began in 1996 when the Walsh Physical Performance Complex was constructed at the cost of over $11 million, which included a home to the TCU Sports Medicine Center, football locker room expansion, weight room and equipment room. Dedicated to former TCU trustee F. Howard Walsh, and his wife, Mary D. Fleming-Walsh, the complex features over 22,182 square feet and is located just outside the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

In 2002, a new scoreboard and video board were installed in the north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium following a generous donation by the Dave E. Bloxom Sr. Foundation.

The John S. Justin Athletic Center was also completed in 2002 in the south end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The $7.5 million facility houses offices for all Frog football coaches and staff along with the TCU athletics administration. The John S. Justin Athletic Center also contains a video lab, academic learning areas, team meeting rooms and the Encke Heritage Center, which plays home to a vast collection of trophies and other historical athletics memorabilia. Inside of the Encke Heritage Center are the Frogs' two football national championship trophies in addition to Davey O'Brien's 1938 Heisman Trophy and LaDainain Tomlinson's 2000 Doak Walker Award.

The field at Amon G. Carter Stadium was renamed after W.A. "Monty & Tex" Moncrief in 2003 following a $3 million donation to the football program in honor of the legendary oil family and one of the first families of philanthropy in the state of Texas. Also in 2003, Amon G. Carter Stadium became the home of the annual Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl Game.

The first major expansion to Amon G. Carter Stadium in the renovation process came in August 2008, when the 40,000-square-foot Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center was constructed. At the cost of $13 million, the newest addition was fully funded by nine donors and features six luxury suites, 250 club seats, academic and team meeting space as well as a player lounge area. Frog faithful also received a unique view of Amon G. Carter Stadium as the suites are the closest suites to the field in any stadium in the country. With the expansion, the total capacity of Amon G. Carter Stadium was increased to 44,358.

In addition to receiving a brand-new stadium for the 2012 season, TCU football also benefited from a revamped Walsh Complex featuring a new locker room in addition to an expanded TCU Sports Medicine Center and equipment room. The space for the expansion projects was created following the opening of the new TCU Physical Performance Center in Summer 2011. The two-story, 19,000-square-foot weight room almost tripled the size of the Frogs' previous facility located in the Walsh Complex. A new grass playing surface with improved drainage system was completed in the 2013 offseason.

SAM BAUGH INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY & COX FIELD

HISTORY

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field was dedicated to the TCU Athletics Department on May 10, 2007, and provides Horned Frog student-athletes with one of the best indoor practice facilities in all of collegiate athletics.

Following a $7 million gift from the Jane and John Justin Foundation and Cox Family, the Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field is an 80,000-square-foot complex that features an 80-yard field with a regulation 52-yard width and two full end zones. The climate-controlled facility measures 60 feet from turf to the highest point of its vaulted ceiling, which allows for all passing and kicking drills.

Widely recognized around the country as a model for future indoor facilities, the Linbeck Group was awarded with the 2008 AGC/Quoin Summit Merit Award sponsored by the Association of General Contractors for its efforts. A long-time partner of TCU Athletics, the Linbeck Group received the honor for developing the project to TCU's satisfaction and recruiting needs while overcoming the adversity of several weather-related obstacles, including 42 days of down time during the wettest year on record in Fort Worth. The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field was designed by Hahnfeld Hoffer Stanford.

THE LEGACY OF SLINGIN' SAMMY BAUGH

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility is named after one of the greatest players in both TCU and NFL history--Slingin' Sammy Baugh. During the 1935 seson, Baugh led the Frogs to their first-ever national championship with a Sugar Bowl victory over LSU. It would be the first of two national titles the Frogs would capture in a four-year span.

In his final collegiate game, Baugh guided the Frogs to a 16-6 victory over Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Game on Jan. 1, 1937, and helped TCU cap off a 9-2-2 overall record. The former quarterback presided over the Golden Era of TCU football and guided the Frogs to 29 victories during his collegiate career.

A first-round pick of the Washington Redskins in 1937, Baugh became known as the first true passer in NFL history and became a major influence in the offensive revolution that swept professional football during the late 1930s and early 1940s. During his 16-year career with the Redskins, Baugh won a record six NFL passing titles to go along with seven inclusions on the All-NFL Team.

Baugh was considered one of the most versatile athletes in the NFL during his time as he also led the league in punting for four consecutive seasons and captured the passing, punting and interception titles during the 1943 season.

Following the 1952 season, Baugh retired from the NFL. The former TCU legend stood next to the likes of Jim Thorpe, George Halas, Bronko Nagurski and Red Grange as part of the first-ever NFL Hall of Fame Class in 1963.

PHYSICAL PERFORMANCE CENTER

TCU opened the brand-new Physical Performance Center in September 2011, replacing the former weight-room facility located in the Walsh Complex. The center is connected to the Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility & Cox Field and Ed & Rae Schollmaier Basketball Complex. At two stories and 19,000 square feet, the facility is almost triple the size of TCU's old weight room.

MEYER-MARTIN ATHLETIC COMPLEX

DUTCH MEYER ATHLETIC COMPLEX & ABE MARTIN ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER

Named for legendary TCU coaches, the $13 million, 40,000-square-foot Dutch Meyer Athletic Complex and Abe Martin Academic Enhancement Center, also known as the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex, made its debut in August 2008 and features six suites with approximately 255 club seats.

The facility sits atop the Walsh Physical Performance Complex and features an expansive club lounge for socializing and premier dining while watching the TCU football program. The complex also includes increased academic space and team meeting areas and was fully funded by nine donors. Revenue from the complex during football season goes directly to supporting athletics scholarships through the TCU Frog Club.

With 40,000 square feet of team meeting space, tutor rooms, a computer lab and players' lounge--not to mention a new club level and suites for fans--the Meyer-Martin Athletic Complex is first class in every regard. The facility boasts six suites, the revenue from which equates to one athletic scholarship, and each comes equipped with mini bar, cushion seating, flat-screen TVs and the closest view to a field in all of college football.

The club level for fans offers a first-class food service in addition to flat-screen TVs and plenty of seating. In addition, a Skybridge connects the club level to club seating.

The players' lounge is comfortable and technology rich, and with in-wall lighting, flat-screen TVs, game consoles and comfortable sofas, it makes the perfect setting for the team to relax.

The Four Sevens Team Meeting Room seats 120 and features acoustic-setting fabric walls and a state-of-the-art projection system for watching film. In addition, Coach Gary Patterson has his weekly press conference inside the Four Sevens Team Meeting Room.

THE MEYER & MARTIN COACHING LEGACY

Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the head football coach for the Frogs in 1934 after former coach Francis Schmidt was lured away to Ohio State. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

The Frogs posted a 12-1 record during the 1935 season, and following a 3-2 victory over LSU in the 1936 Sugar Bowl, TCU was crowned the national champions. The Frogs continued success during the 1937 and 1938 campaigns with O'Brien at the quarterback position. The 1938 squad was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest teams some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's squad rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl to claim their second national championship.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the Southwest Conference and won another championship during the 1944 campaign. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951 and two years later, the Frog football coach became TCU's athletics director (a position he held until retiring in 1963).

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Martin installed the popular T-formation, and in just three seasons, found the championship formula. His 1955 squad, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games with their lone setback coming to Texas A&M. Martin would go on to capture two more Southwest Conference titles during the 1950s.

During his 14-year tenure as head football coach, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 overall record to go along with five post-season bowl appearances and producing seven All-Americans.

The legacy of Dutch Meyer and Abe Martin helped deliver seven of TCU's 17 conference championships and 12 of the program's 27 all-time bowl appearances.

WALSH PHYSICAL PERFORMANCE COMPLEX

The Walsh Physical Performance Complex was constructed in 1996 and dedicated to F. Howard Walsh--a former TCU Board of Trustees member--along with his wife, Mary D. Fleming-Walsh. Overlooking the south end zone, the nearly 22,182-square-foot complex is home to the Sports Medicine Center, football locker room and equipment room in addition to housing offices and dressing rooms for athletics staff members, coaches and student-athletes. The area formerly housed TCU's previous strength and conditioning facility for more than 15 years prior to the addition of the Physical Performance Center in 2011.

The Walsh received its second facelift in Summer 2012 as part of the $164 million renovation of Amon G. Carter Stadium. With the relocation of the former weight room, a large amount of space was freed up leading to the expansion of the Sports Medicine and equipment areas, as well as the addition of a brand new football locker room.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Walsh Complex Athletic Training Room is situated near the football locker room and features multiple treatment tables and rehabilitation equipment that is essential in helping injured student-athletes get back on their feet. Among the enhancements to TCU's all-new Sports Medicine Center in 2012 were aquatic rehab pools that help provide the latest in recovery techniques. Additional hyperbaric oxygen chambers also were included, while TCU became the first NCAA program to install a cryotherapy chamber, which further aids in speedy recovery.

EQUIPMENT

TCU's equipment area more than doubled in 2012 thanks to the Walsh Complex renovation. Included among the new additions are the latest in organization and space-saving technology to better serve each of the Horned Frogs' 21 varsity sports.

LOCKER ROOM

TCU's brand new football locker room, which debuted in time for the 2012 season, measures more than 8,000 square feet and features one of the most advanced and custom-designed locker spaces in all of college football. The new locker room took over the space occupied by the former strength and conditioning area.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

A BRIDGE TO THE WORLD

Mentoring professors. A vibrant academic community. New and updated facilities with all the amenities. Scores of opportunities to develop leadership skills on campus and abroad. Those are just a few of the reasons TCU is ahead of the curve.

Committed to creating a world-class, values-centered university experience, TCU is friendly and diverse. Students benefit from the strengths and resources of larger institutions in a small college environment. They can choose from more than 113 undergraduate areas of study, participate in innovative programs such as entrepreneurship and nurse anesthesia, and take part in service learning. Their professors are leaders in their fields, and classes are rigorous.

A global perspective permeates TCU, and students have numerous opportunities to study across the globe. With a teacher-scholar model that results in close, mentoring relationships, TCU fosters discovery, creativity and leadership. It's a culture that enables the search for meaning and success.

Consequently, a TCU education is more than the sum of semester hours--it's an exciting university experience that grows from the mission: "To educate individuals to think and act as ethical leaders and responsible citizens in the global community."

TCU SPORTS NETWORK FROM IMG

TCU SPORTS NETWORK FROM IMG

Selected as the best play-by-play broadcast in the state of Texas five of the last six years, the TCU Sports Network from IMG will continue handling radio duties for TCU Football in 2014.

On Nov. 12, 2012, TCU reached a 12-year agreement with IMG College, the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, that provides the company with primary multimedia rights to TCU Athletics. The agreement was an extension of the original partnership that began in 2006.

The agreement, effective through the 2023-24 academic year, includes IMG College's representation and management of game broadcasts and coaches' shows for radio and television, publications, Internet sales, corporate partnerships, stadium and venue signage, game promotions and hospitality.

Each year on the TCU Sports Network, more than 200 hours of Horned Frogs sports programming is produced and distributed, including play-by-play and pre- and post-game shows for TCU football and basketball games.

TCU announced a new five-year radio partnership with WBAP 820-AM and 96.7-FM that began in the 2010-11 athletics campaign. TCU receives an enhanced national presence through WBAP, which operates one of the most powerful stations in the country. The night-time signal reaches 38 states in addition to parts of Canada and Mexico. WBAP consistently ranks as one of the top-rated radio stations in the Metroplex.

The TCU Sports Network broadcasts can also be heard in the Metroplex on KTCU 88.7-FM, in Houston on KKHT 100.7-FM and around the world via the internet on GoFrogs.com. Additionally, TCU features a Spanish language broadcast on Univision Radio KFLC 1270-AM.

GARY PATTERSON RADIO SHOW PRESENTED BY LEGACYTEXAS BANK

The Gary Patterson Call-In Radio Show Presented by LegacyTexas Bank airs each Thursday throughout the season from 6-7 p.m. on 92.1 Hank FM. The show, hosted by Brian Estridge, features TCU players, coaches and fans and broadcasts live from Railhead Smokehouse in Fort Worth.

BRIAN ESTRIDGE

BRIAN ESTRIDGE

Brian Estridge is in his 17th season at TCU providing insightful and entertaining play-by-play as the "Voice of the Horned Frogs" and serving as Director of Broadcasting. In addition to his TCU radio responsibilities, Estridge has also provided play-by-play for numerous ESPN, CBS/Westwood One and FOX Sports productions. The Kershaw, S.C., native's radio career began at age 14 with stops along the way in South Carolina, North Carolina and Ohio where he served as the play-by-play voice of Miami (Ohio) University and Appalachian State University. His play-by-play has been honored by both the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters (TAPB) and the Press Club of Dallas as the best play-by-play in the state. Estridge is the co-host of The WBAP Morning News, one of DFW's top-rated morning shows. Estridge serves as an executive board member of the Davey O'Brien Award, the Ben Hogan Award, Armed Forces Bowl and RB Eye Foundation, while also acting as the President of RedVoice, Inc., which produces the national radio network for the Heart of Dallas Bowl and Armed Forces Bowl College Football broadcasts.

JOHN DENTON

JOHN DENTON

John Denton, a former Horned Frogs kicker, celebrates his 26th year as color analyst on the TCU Sports Network this season. Denton lettered four years as a kicker and punter for the Horned Frogs from 1981-84. Denton has drawn several assignments with Westwood One and CBS Radio Sports and their coverage of the NCAA Tournament, NFL Monday Night Football, NFL Playoffs and Major League Baseball's Game of the Week, as well as working with ESPN and FOX Sports Southwest. In addition to his TCU football color analyst duties, Denton serves as analyst for Horned Frog men's basketball broadcasts and is TCU Athletics' Director of Major Gifts.

LANDRY BURDINE

Landry Burdine enters his second season with TCU Sports Network as the crew's sideline reporter. A former Horned Frogs safety, he participated in the program's revitalization while earning letters from 1996-98. Burdine concluded his career as a team captain for the 1998 squad that won the Sun Bowl, TCU's first bowl victory in four decades. Today, he is an active member of the TCU Lettermen's Association and served a prior stint as the organization's president. He currently works as managing director of the Dallas/Fort Worth office for Land Advisors Organization, a national land brokerage company.

MIGUEL CRUZ

MIGUEL CRUZ

Miguel Cruz, a veteran broadcaster in the Metroplex area, became the first-ever play-by-play announcer for TCU's Spanish language broadcast when it debuted on Univision Radio 1270-AM in 2010. Cruz has spent the last 10 years covering sports in Dallas-Fort Worth for Univision. In addition to hosting the daily radio show Ultima Jugada 1270 AM and the weekly television show Accion Deportiva Extra on Univision 23, Cruz also has been sideline reporter for Dallas Cowboys broadcasts and provided Spanish color analysis for the Dallas Mavericks' Univision radio broadcast.

ELVIS GALLEGOS

ELVIS GALLEGOS

Elvis Gallegos, a four-year letterman as a Horned Frogs safety (2003-06), is in his fifth season as analyst for TCU's Spanish language broadcast. Gallegos played in 45 games as a Frog while helping the team post three 11-win seasons and a pair of bowl victories. He finished second on the team in tackles in 2004 with 56 stops while making a career-high seven starts at free safety in Gary Patterson's defensive system.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BIG 12 CONFERENCE – STRENGTH AND SUCCESS

The Big 12 enters its 19th year as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of third-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012, and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only major conference in the nation to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule.

The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 18 years. In the fall of 2013, former Texas Tech track and field student-athlete Ifeatu Okafor was named the Big 12's first NCAA Woman of the Year. Texas became the 12th league volleyball squad to advance to the national semifinals while three teams placed in the top 15 at the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Cross Country Championships. Big 12 football placed two teams for the sixth time in what was the final season of the BCS with Oklahoma defeating two-time defending national champion Alabama in the Sugar Bowl.

The 2014 winter and spring seasons were just as successful as Oklahoma claimed the Big 12's first NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championship and 14 student-athletes claimed individual national titles. Texas women's indoor and outdoor track & field, UT men's swimming & diving, Oklahoma men's tennis and Oklahoma State men's golf finished as NCAA runners-up. Baylor softball was one of the last four teams standing at the Women's College World Series and the Big 12 placed a nation's-best four baseball squads in the NCAA Super Regionals and three in the College World Series.

Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 53 NCAA team titles and 552 individual national championships.

The Big 12 lays claim to five Heisman Trophy winners since 1996 and has had a finalist in 12 of its 18 seasons – tied for the most of any league. Twenty athletes have earned major individual awards in football in the past six campaigns. Overall, more than 1,900 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition in the past seven years alone.

Through its first 18 years, the Big 12 has claimed a team national championship in 17 of the sports it sponsors. The Conference finished the BCS era ranked tied for second with seven appearances in the National Championship Game. League squads combined to lead the nation in women's basketball attendance 15 consecutive years and the Big 12 is the only conference to surpass the one-million mark in season attendance – doing so six times. In men's basketball, the league has had seven teams earn NCAA bids twice in the past five years and every coach has guided a team to the NCAA Tournament, including a nation's-best six coaches that have led teams to the Final Four. During the last 10 years a total of 32 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including 17 consecutive seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Danielle Robinson (Oklahoma) and Sam Acho (Texas) were selected to receive Today's Top VIII Awards – one of the NCAA's top honors. It recognizes student-athletes who completed their athletic eligibility during 2010-11 for success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last three seasons, four student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 89 Award with pitcher John Curtiss (Texas) picking up the latest honor in the spring of 2014. The honor showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has had 571 Academic All-America recipients, averaging more than 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Eleven times in the past nine years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Frances Silva (West Virginia) for soccer and Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) for football in 2013.

The Big 12 can take pride in other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships. Oklahoma State women's basketball was the inaugural recipient of the "Together We R" Team Award in 2012, recognizing programs that have strived to succeed in the face of adversity. Following a devastating tornado south of Oklahoma City just before the Big 12 Baseball Championship in 2013, several league baseball teams along with other student-athletes, coaches and former Conference players contributed help in a variety of ways. Plus, the Conference contributed $200,000 to the relief efforts.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 341 scholars have received nearly $2.3 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 18 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference conducts postseason championships for 20 of its 23 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

In its first 18 years, the Big 12 has distributed more than $2.04 billion to its member institutions, including a record $220.1 million in 2013-14. The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

HORNED FROGS OFFENSE

TCU's offensive attack will see a new look in 2014 with the addition of co-offensive coordinators Doug Meacham and Sonny Cumbie. Trevone Boykin (6-2, 215, Jr.), one of the more versatile players in college football, keys the offensive returnees. The Horned Frogs welcome back four of their top-five rushers from a year ago as well as five of the top-six receivers. Three of five starters from the offensive line also return.

QUARTERBACK

Boykin was second on TCU last season in passing yards (1,198) and rushing yards (313) while tying for fourth in receptions (26).

Boykin was the first Horned Frog in history and the only player in the nation last season with a 100-yard rushing, 100-yard receiving and 200-yard passing game.

A Dallas native, Boykin also became the first player in TCU history to lead the Horned Frogs in passing yards (133) and receptions (3) in the same game during a 38-17 win over Southeastern Louisiana. With his 101 yards rushing at Texas Tech, Boykin was the first TCU quarterback since 1987 to run for 100 yards.

Boykin's career-best 11 receptions, for 100 yards, against West Virginia were the most by a Horned Frog in 13 seasons under head coach Gary Patterson. In the 21-17 win at Iowa State, Boykin became the first Horned Frog with three rushing touchdowns in a game since 2009. The following week, he ran for a score, threw for another and contributed four receptions at Kansas State.

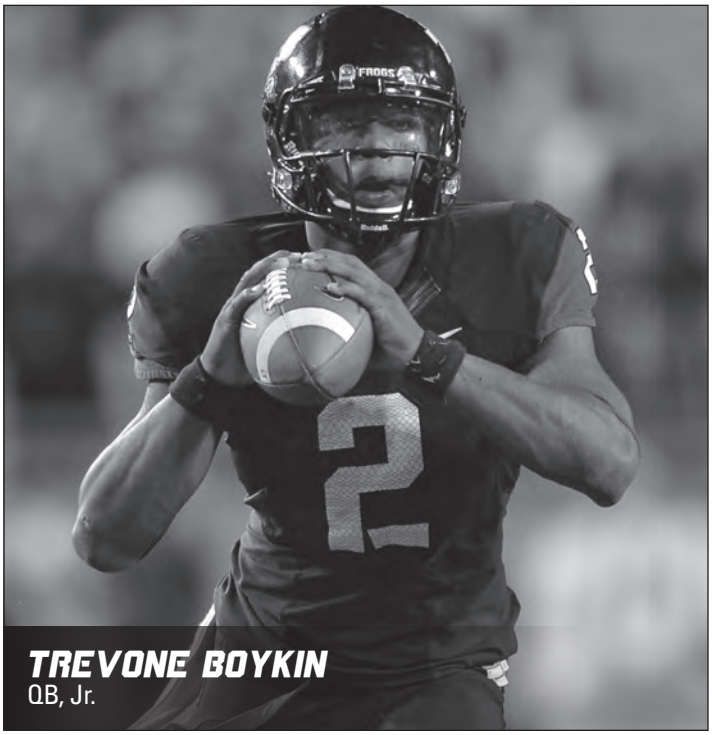
Zach Allen (6-3, 194, RFr.), from Temple, Texas, was an early enrollee last spring who redshirted in 2013. He closed the spring in a second-team position on the depth chart.

Newcomers Matt Joeckel (6-4, 240, Sr.), Grayson Muehlstein (6-4, 210, Fr.) and Foster Sawyer (6-5, 215, Fr.) arrived on campus in the summer to join the quarterback mix.

Joeckel is a transfer from Texas A&M. He saw action in five games, including one start, for the Aggies last season. He completed 59.5 percent of his passes for 293 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Muehlstein, from Decatur, Texas, was ranked as the No. 4 quarterback in Texas and No. 31 nationally last year. He earned District 9-3A Co-Offensive Most Valuable Player honors as a senior.

Sawyer was the Star-Telegram Player of the Year. The Fort Worth native completed 65.6 percent of his passes for 2,867 yards with 48 touchdowns and just two interceptions as a senior for All Saints' Episcopal School. He was the No. 2 quarterback prospect in Texas and No. 13 nationally by Scout.com.



TREVONE BOYKIN
QB, Jr.

JOSH DOCTSON
WR, Jr.

WIDE RECEIVER

Josh Doctson (6-4, 190, Jr.), who tied for the TCU lead last season with 36 receptions, enters the fall in a first-team position at the Z spot.

Doctson had a team-best 440 receiving yards to go with four touchdowns. A Wyoming transfer, he became the first player in TCU history to score a touchdown for the Horned Frogs after scoring one against them (Wyoming, 2011).

Doctson had 27 receptions in the final five games after totaling nine grabs in the opening seven contests. He had a career-high eight catches for 92 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown against West Virginia.

Backing up Doctson is Jordan Moore (6-3, 221, Jr.), a Big 12 track and field champion in both the 60- and 110-meter hurdles.

Moore is a converted tailback who had an impressive spring after being moved to wide receiver. He ran for 87 yards while adding two receptions last season.

David Porter (6-0, 197, Sr.) had a breakout season in 2013 and is No. 1 at the Y position.

Porter had a team-best five receiving touchdowns, while his 26 catches nearly tripled the total (nine) from his first two seasons combined. His 435 yards narrowly trailed Doctson for the team lead.

Porter had 18 receptions over the final five games after totaling just eight catches in the opening seven contests. His first career 100-yard receiving game came in the 27-17 win over Kansas, when he had four receptions for 118 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown on the opening play of the second half.

Cameron Echols-Luper (6-0, 190, So.) and Griffin Gilbert (6-5, 220, So.) are behind Porter at the Y spot.

Echols-Luper earned Freshman All-America honors as a punt returner. He totaled four receptions on the season while also completing both his pass attempts for 49 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown against Texas.
Griffin is a converted tight end. He played in just two games last season before being sidelined for the year by injury.

Ty Slanina (6-0, 193, So.) and Deante' Gray (5-10, 175, Jr.) are at the H receiver position.

Slanina totaled 19 receptions as a true freshman in 2013. He had a season-best and team-high six grabs at Oklahoma, while his 20-yard touchdown catch versus SMU provided the Horned Frogs with their go-ahead score in the game.

Gray split time last season between receiver and cornerback. He was second on TCU with his 19.5-yard average on eight receptions. In the Horned Frogs' 21-17 win at Iowa State, Gray started at cornerback for injured All-American Jason Verrett and did not allow a reception.

Ja'Juan Story (6-4, 208, Jr.) and Kolby Listenbee (6-1, 183, Jr.) will enter the fall in a battle for the first-team nod at the X position.

Story averaged a team-best 21.7 yards per catch on his seven receptions for the year. He closed the campaign with a season-best three catches against Baylor. Listenbee is a two-year letterman with three career receptions. He's also a sprinter for the TCU track and field team.

TAILBACK

The Horned Frogs return their top two tailbacks from the close of last season in B.J. Catalon (5-9, 190, Jr.) and Aaron Green (5-11, 200, Jr.), while talented 2013 redshirts Kyle Hicks (5-10, 190, RFr.) and Trevorris Johnson (5-11, 221, RFr.) will look to put themselves in position for playing time.

Catalon led TCU in rushing for the second straight season with 569 yards in 2013, becoming the first Horned Frog since Joseph Turner (2007-09) to top TCU in rushing in consecutive seasons. Catalon closed the 2013 campaign with a career-high 93 yards on 11 carries against Baylor.

Catalon also made his mark on special teams, earning honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors as a kickoff returner. He finished second in the conference and 16th nationally with a 26.5-yard average. Catalon was one of just four players nationally last season with a rushing touchdown and kickoff return for a score.

A Houston native, Catalon also shines in the classroom as a second-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

Green, a Parade All-American during his high school days in San Antonio, came on strong at the close of the season. Green placed fourth on TCU with 232 yards. He was key in the 21-17 win at Iowa State with a season-long 22-yard gain on a 4th-and-1 to keep the Horned Frogs' game-winning drive alive. He then had a 17-yard carry to set the stage for Trevone Boykin's go-ahead 1-yard run with 38 seconds to play.

Hicks, a four-star recruit by Rivals.com and Scout.com, was ranked as the No. 3 running back in Texas and No. 21 in the nation. He ran for 1,113 yards while totaling 28 touchdowns in just nine games as a senior for Arlington Martin High School.

Johnson rushed for 2,115 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior for Alief Taylor High School in Houston. He had a single-game high of 342 yards. Johnson was rated as the No. 7 running back in Texas.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Halapoulivaati Vaitai (6-6, 308, Jr.) closed the spring No. 1 at left tackle. He started two games at the position last season and five at right tackle.

Tayo Fabuluje (6-7, 315, Sr.), listed behind Vaitai, is a newcomer but a familiar face. He started 12 games at left tackle for the Horned Frogs in 2012, but did not participate in football last season as he attended classes at BYU.

Jamelle Naff (6-4, 325, Jr.) opens fall camp in a first-team position at left guard. He made two starts last season.

Veteran Bobby Thompson (6-6, 310, Jr.) will push Naff for a starting job. Thompson, who has battled injuries, played well down the stretch last season.

Joey Hunt (6-3, 295, Jr.) returns at center after starting 11 of 12 games at the position a year ago.

Brady Foltz (6-4, 325, Jr.) and Patrick Morris (6-3, 288, So.) are behind Hunt at center.

Foltz lettered the last two seasons at guard while appearing in 22 of 23 games. He is the younger brother of former TCU standout and All-Big 12 offensive guard Blaize Foltz (2009-12).

Morris saw action in five games as a true freshman last season, including a start at left guard versus SMU.

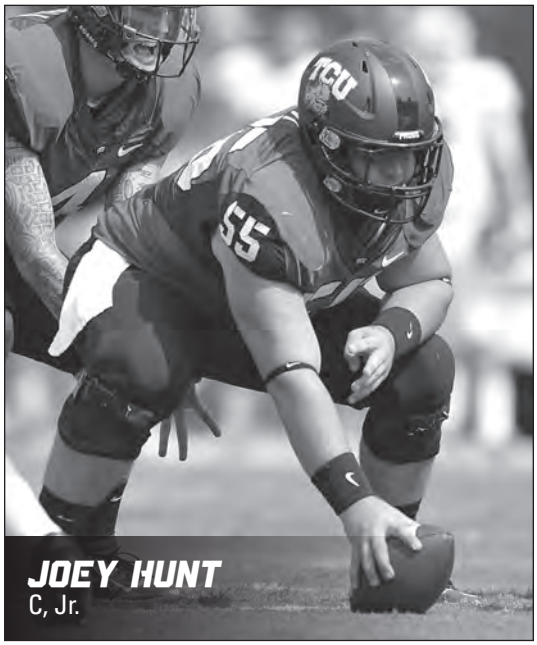
Frank Kee (6-4, 345, Jr.), an early enrollee from Tyler Junior College, came out of the spring as the starter at right guard. Kee, who played his high school ball at nearby Mansfield Timberview, was ranked by Rivals.com last year as the nation's No. 3 junior college offensive guard.

Matt Pryor (6-7, 350, RFr.) is behind Kee at right guard. Pryor was a redshirt last year after being a late addition to the program.

Joseph Noteboom (6-5, 295, RFr.), who redshirted last season, had a very good spring and enters the fall in a first-team position at right tackle.

Aviante Collins (6-6, 285, Jr.) is behind Noteboom.

Collins started the final six games at right tackle after opening the season with three starts at left tackle. He started all 13 games as a true freshman in 2012. His 22 career starts are tied for third among active Horned Frogs.



TIGHT END

Veteran Cliff Murphy (6-4, 265, Sr.) and Buck Jones (6-4, 240, So.) are the two tight ends on the depth chart entering fall camp.

Murphy, who came to TCU as a defensive end, is a two-year letterman. He made three starts last season.

Jones, a first-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree, appeared in all 12 games. He is the son of TCU football letterman Gregg Jones (1985-87).

2014 OUTLOOK

HORNED FROGS DEFENSE

TCU returns nine starters from a defensive unit that led the Big 12 in rushing defense (130.8 yards per game) while placing a close second in total defense (356.4 yards per game). The Horned Frogs were just 6.2 yards behind Oklahoma State, despite playing 40 more snaps.

DEFENSIVE LINE

TCU returns three starters on the defensive line, not including 2012 Associated Press Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year Devonte Fields (6-4, 250, So.).

Fields was limited to just three games last season due to injury. As a true freshman, he led the Big 12 with 18 ½ tackles for loss while placing third with 10 sacks.

Fields will enter the fall in a second-team position at right end behind Terrell Lathan (6-5, 280, Jr.).

One of three TCU defensive linemen from West Monroe (La.) High School, Lathan led the Horned Frogs last season with five sacks.

James McFarland (6-3, 248, Jr.), also from West Monroe, closed spring practice No. 1 at left end. The two-year letterman totaled three sacks last season, including two at Oklahoma State.

Behind McFarland are Josh Carraway (6-4, 240, So.) and Bryson Henderson (6-4, 245, RFr.).

Carraway redshirted last season after lettering as a true freshman in 2012. Henderson, from Mansfield Summit High School, was a fall redshirt in his first season on campus.

Veterans Chucky Hunter (6-1, 305, Sr.) and Davion Pierson (6-2, 305, Jr.) anchor the defensive tackle positions.

Hunter is a two-time All-Big 12 selection. He led the TCU defensive front last season with 43 tackles, including six for loss with two sacks.

Pierson has been a two-year starter. He had 4 ½ tackles for loss among 24 stops, before being slowed by injury late in the season.

Mike Tuaua (6-3, 253, Jr.) and Tevin Lawson (6-4, 280, So.), who had impressive debut seasons for TCU in 2013, figure prominently into the mix at defensive tackle.

Tuaua, from the same Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College that produced TCU All-America cornerback Jason Verrett, started the final three games at defensive end last season. He totaled 4 ½ tackles for loss, including a sack, among his 17 stops.

As a true freshman, Lawson played in 11 games and recorded seven tackles.

CHUCKY HUNTER
DT, Sr.

SAFETY

Returning All-Big 12 safeties Sam Carter (6-1, 215, Sr.) and Chris Hackett (6-2, 195, Jr.) key the safety position for the Horned Frogs.

Carter, who came to TCU as a quarterback, is a two-time all-conference pick at strong safety. He led TCU while tying for second in the Big 12 with five interceptions. He also tied for second on the Horned Frogs with four sacks. His 49 tackles, which included 7 ½ for loss, placed sixth on TCU.

Carter was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the 48-17 win over SMU. He had two interceptions, including one returned 66 yards for a touchdown. He also totaled five tackles, including 1 ½ for loss, with a sack and forced fumble.

Hackett, at weak safety, placed second on TCU with 88 tackles while taking part in a takeaway in five of 12 contests. He had a team-best three forced fumbles to go with three interceptions, five pass breakups and a fumble recovery. His three picks came in consecutive games against Southeastern Louisiana, Texas Tech and SMU.

Hackett reached double figures in tackles in five games, including a career-best 12 stops in the season finale with Baylor.

Denzel Johnson (6-2, 205, So.), who impressed as a true freshman last season, is behind Carter on the depth chart.

Johnson was a major contributor on special teams a year ago.

George Baltimore (6-0, 205, RFr.), who redshirted last season, will push for playing time at strong safety.

Behind Hackett is Tyler Junior College transfer Kenny Iloka (6-2, 209, Jr.). Ranked by Rivals.com as the nation's No. 1 junior college safety, Iloka was an early enrollee. He is the younger brother of Cincinnati Bengals' starting safety George Iloka.

After an impressive sophomore season, Derrick Kindred (5-10, 210, Jr.) enters the fall atop the depth chart at free safety.

Kindred started the final three contests a year ago. He had two starts at free safety and one at weak safety. He placed seventh on TCU with 48 tackles, including season-best totals of nine and eight stops versus Iowa State and Kansas State, respectively. He had interceptions at Texas Tech and Oklahoma State.

Geoff Hooker (5-10, 186, Sr.), a former walk-on who earned a scholarship last season, is behind Kindred on the depth chart. Hooker made his first career start last season in the SMU game. He also recorded his first career interception with a pick against West Virginia.

2013 redshirt Steve Wesley (6-0, 175, RFr.) will also compete for playing time at free safety.

2014 OUTLOOK

LINEBACKER

The Horned Frogs return their entire linebacker corps for the 2014 season.

Veteran Jonathan Anderson (6-3, 227, Sr.) enters fall camp No. 1 at middle linebacker with Marcus Mallet (6-1, 227, Sr.) and Paul Dawson (6-2, 230, Sr.) battling for the starting job at the sam linebacker.

Anderson, who made 10 starts, placed fourth on TCU with a career-high 66 tackles last season. His 143 career stops rank second among active Horned Frogs.

Mallet had 70 tackles after totaling just 21 in his first two seasons combined. His 8 ½ tackles for loss placed fourth on the Horned Frogs. He made seven starts on the season and closed the year with a career-best 12 stops against Baylor.

Dawson topped TCU with 91 tackles in 2013, while his 10 stops for a loss placed second. The former wide receiver at Dallas Skyline High School reached double figures in tackles in five of the final seven games, including a career-best 17 stops in a win over Kansas.

Sammy Douglas (6-3, 195, So.) and Paul Whitmill (5-11, 220, RFr.) are young players who will compete for playing time.

Douglas contributed mostly on special teams as a true freshman last season, while Whitmill was a redshirt.

CORNERBACK

With the graduation of two-time All-American Jason Verrett, Kevin White (5-10, 174, Sr.) is now the veteran leader of the unit.

White received honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors from the conference coaches last season. He placed second on TCU with eight pass breakups and three interceptions while posting a team-best three fumble recoveries.

The 27 career starts by White rank as the most among active Horned Frogs.

Travoskey Garrett (6-1, 190, Jr.) is behind White. Garrett played in four games last year after being sidelined his first two seasons due to injury.

Ranthony Texada (5-10, 160, RFr.), who redshirted last season, enters the fall in a No. 1 position opposite White. Pushing Texada is fellow 2013 redshirt Cyd Calvin (6-1, 175, RFr.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

TCU's special teams figure to again be a strength in 2014.

Jaden Oberkrom (6-3, 187, Jr.) and Ethan Perry (6-4, 230, Jr.) return for their third season as the Horned Frogs' placekicker and punter, respectively.

In the return game, B.J. Catalon (5-9, 190, Jr.) and Cameron Echols-Luper (6-0, 190, So.) both ranked among the national leaders while earning postseason honors.

Oberkrom, an honorable-mention All-Big 12 selection, was also first-team Academic All-Big 12 and Capital One Academic All-District. He was 14-of-18 on field goals, including a 13-of-14 mark on attempts inside 50 yards. His career-best 56-yard field goal to give TCU the lead at Kansas State with 2:13 to play tied for the second-longest made kick in school history and was just 1-yard shy of a school record. It also gave him two of the four-longest field goals in TCU history.

Oberkrom was perfect on his 37 extra-point attempts, giving him a streak of 79 consecutive makes which ties the TCU career record and is third nationally among active placekickers.

Ryan DeNucci (5-10, 195, Sr.) provides depth at placekicker behind Oberkrom.

Perry averaged 40.3 yards on the season and ranked among the national leaders by placing 36.3 percent of his punts (29-of-80) inside the 20. He had just four touchbacks on the year, including only one in the final seven games.

Perry had a punt of at least 54 yards in each of the final four games and in five of the last six contests. Opponents had just 17 punt returns on the season.

James Power (6-3, 235, Sr.) will be in his second season as the deep snapper with Matt Brown (6-1, 190, Sr.) returning as the holder on extra points and field goals.

Catalon and Echols-Luper are the No.1 kickoff returners entering the season with Echols-Luper projected to also handle punt returns.

Catalon was honorable-mention All-Big 12 as a kickoff returner. He placed second in the Big 12 and 16th nationally with his 26.5-yard return average.

Catalon's 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against LSU gave TCU at least one punt or kickoff return for a score in six of the last seven seasons. The 100-yard return also tied for second longest in TCU history while setting an AT&T Stadium record for a collegiate game.

Echols-Luper was a Freshman All-America punt returner by Phil Steele Publications. He ranked third in the Big 12 and 16th nationally with his team-best 13.4 yards per return, including season-long efforts of 51 yards versus SMU and 41 yards against Baylor.

HEAD COACH
KANSAS STATE, 1983

14th Season as TCU Head Coach
17th Season Overall at TCU

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

Patterson is the Horned Frogs' all-time winningest coach with 120 victories. The success of the program under his leadership was key in TCU securing an invitation to the Big 12 Conference and the $164 million rebuild of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Patterson's .732 winning percentage (120-44) ranks seventh among active coaches nationally (minimum 5 years). He is also one of just six active coaches with at least 100 victories at their current school.

Patterson became TCU's career leader in wins with a 56-0 victory over Grambling State in the 2012 season opener, a game that also marked the debut of the new Amon G. Carter Stadium. The previous TCU mark of 109 wins was held by Dutch Meyer (1934-52).

In August 2011, Patterson was named the nation's top coach by Sports Illustrated and ESPN The Magazine. Sporting News tabbed him in January 2012 as the nation's third-best coach.

In leading TCU to back-to-back BCS appearances in the 2009 and 2010 seasons, including a 2011 Rose Bowl championship, Patterson received 10 National Coach of the Year honors.

The Horned Frogs have won seven conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting nine of the school's 13 10-win seasons. The Horned Frogs have won at least 10 games in eight of the last 12 years, including seven seasons of 11 or more victories.

During his 16 years on campus, including three seasons as defensive coordinator (1998-00), Patterson has seen TCU make 14 bowl appearances. TCU is one of just 17 programs nationally to reach a bowl game in at least 14 of the last 16 seasons. From 2005-08, Patterson led the Horned Frogs to four straight bowl victories for the first time in school history. During that stretch, TCU was one of just seven schools nationally to have an active bowl-game winning streak of at least four in a row.

TCU is 9-5 in bowl games with Patterson on its coaching staff and 7-5 with him as head coach. Prior to Patterson's arrival on campus in 1998, the Horned Frogs had just four bowl wins in their history.

In 13 seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 173 All-Conference selections, 17 first-team All-Americans, 17 Freshman All-Americans and two Academic All-Americans.

As TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 34 players drafted with a total of 73 in NFL camps.

Patterson's success on the gridiron is also mirrored in the classroom for his players. In each of the last six seasons, TCU has been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as one of the nation's leaders in its graduation rate for student-athletes. TCU was one of just a few schools to achieve a graduation rate of 90 percent or better for its football student-athletes who entered as freshmen in 2005.

TCU was also one of just four programs to finish in the top 25 in the final 2010 polls and in the Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU trails only Alabama for the most times leading the nation in total defense. The Crimson Tide have been No. 1 six times, while all five No. 1 rankings (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009, 2010) for the Horned Frogs are in the last 14 seasons under Patterson. From 2008-10, TCU became just the third program in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons.

TCU's winning record in its first season in the Big 12 in 2012 came with the Horned Frogs fielding one of the youngest teams in the country. TCU tied for the national lead in most true freshmen played (16) as well as total freshmen (28) seeing the field. Nearly 70 percent of Horned Frogs who received playing time in 2012 were either freshmen or sophomores. TCU led the Big 12 in total defense with just one senior on its entire defensive depth chart.

In its first year in the Big 12, TCU had 18 players recognized with all-conference honors. The list included true freshman defensive end Devonte Fields, who was named the Associated Press Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Cornerback Jason Verrett was the 2013 Co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Despite losing 26 seniors to graduation off his Rose Bowl championship team, Patterson led a 2011 TCU squad to a third consecutive Mountain West championship. It was the first time the Horned Frogs won a conference title in three straight seasons. TCU was also the first team in MW history to win the league championship in three consecutive campaigns.

The 2011 campaign saw TCU record its fourth straight 11-win season and become the only program nationally to reach 11 victories six times in a seven-year span (2005-11).

In 2010, Patterson guided the Horned Frogs to an undefeated season and Rose Bowl championship. TCU finished second in the final polls with a 13-0 record, its first perfect campaign since winning the national championship in 1938.

Patterson was named American Football Monthly's 2010 Coach of the Year as he led TCU to its second straight BCS game. Other honors for Patterson included the Exchange Club of Fort Worth recognizing him as Fort Worth's Outstanding Citizen for 2010, while the National Football Foundation's Gridiron Club of Dallas selected him for its 2011 Distinguished Texan Award.

Patterson also received the 2010 TCU Chancellor's Staff Award for Outstanding Service.

In 2009, Patterson was selected for nine national coaching honors after leading TCU to a 12-1 record, No. 6 ranking and Fiesta Bowl appearance.

Patterson was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and Sporting News while also receiving the Bobby Dodd Award, Eddie Robinson Award, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, George Munger Award and Woody Hayes Award.

Despite losing two starters in the first two rounds of the National Football League draft and a pair of four-year starters at cornerback, TCU topped the nation in total defense in 2010.

In six of its seven seasons in the Mountain West, TCU set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Horned Frogs had a school-record 20 selections in 2009, 19 in 2011, 18 in 2005 and 2008, 17 in 2010, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

The No. 6 spot in the polls in 2009 was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1955, when it was also sixth. The Horned Frogs had their first undefeated regular season since their 1938 national championship campaign.

Despite losing seven starters to graduation, including three to the NFL, off 2008's No. 1 defense, the Horned Frogs led the nation in 2009 by allowing just 239.7 yards per game.

TCU and Florida were the only schools in 2009 to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense and defense. The Horned Frogs were seventh offensively at 456.7 yards per game.

In 2008, Patterson was one of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger National Coach of the Year Award by the Maxwell Football Club. He was also named to the Paul

Patterson guided TCU to an 11-2 record and a No. 7 ranking in the final AP and USA Today polls. It was the Horned Frogs' highest season-ending appearance in the polls since 1959. Included in the win total were victories over then-undefeated, top-10 teams BYU and Boise State. It was the first time since 1961 that TCU beat two top-10 opponents in the same season.

TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game) in 2008 for the third time in nine seasons. No other school in the country has finished first in that category as many times as TCU in that span. The Horned Frogs were also first in run defense (47.1 yards), fewest first downs allowed per game (12.1) and time of possession (35:10). TCU was second in scoring defense (11.3 points per game).

Patterson became the fastest TCU coach to reach 50 victories (70 games) with a 27-21 win at New Mexico on Nov. 11, 2006. He was also the quickest to 100 wins (129 contests) after a 38-17 victory over Louisiana-Monroe on Sept. 17, 2011.

Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Horned Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

TCU won its last eight games in 2006 for the fourth-best winning streak at the time in the nation, trailing only Boise State (13), BYU (10) and Wisconsin (9). The Horned Frogs' eight consecutive wins were by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 yards in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Horned Frogs to the Mountain West Conference championship in their first season of league play.

It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Horned Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years.

TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938.

The Horned Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MW polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category.

The 2005 Horned Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson. His teams also led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Horned Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

In his first full season as head coach with the Horned Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Horned Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Horned Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll.

Eleven of Patterson's career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Horned Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Horned Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. The Horned Frogs posted two shutouts and led the Western Athletic Conference in every major defensive category.

In 2000, the Horned Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Five of Patterson's players earned first-team all-conference recognition and he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved its total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

A true defensive specialist, Patterson had a similar impact at Navy. In just one season as the Midshipmen's secondary coach in 1995, he helped elevate the defense in the national rankings. Navy finished 18th in total defense, 17th in scoring defense and 28th in pass defense efficiency.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 17 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other 14 have come at TCU.

Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh, Cade and Blake.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DOUG MEACHAM

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ INSIDE WIDE RECEIVERS

1st Season at TCU
Oklahoma State, 1988

Doug Meacham joined the TCU football staff as co-offensive coordinator in December 2013.

Meacham came to the Horned Frogs after serving as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Houston in the 2013 season.

TCU marks the sixth school that Meacham has been an offensive coordinator. In addition to his role at Houston, Meacham coordinated offenses at Samford (2002-04), Henderson State (1999-00), Jacksonville State (1997-99) and Georgia Military (1994-96).

Prior to arriving at Houston, Meacham spent eight seasons (2005-12) as the tight ends/inside receivers coach at Oklahoma State. He was the Cowboys' passing game coordinator in the 2008-09 campaigns. Meacham was part of two of the most successful eras in Oklahoma State football history, first as a student-athlete (1984-87) and then during his tenure as an assistant coach. As a student-athlete, Meacham was teammates with TCU wide receivers coach Curtis Luper.

The Cowboys ranked in the top 10 nationally in offense and averaged at least 40 points in five of Meacham's last six seasons in Stillwater. Oklahoma State was in the top five in the country in total offense in the 2010-12 campaigns, when it scored more than 50 points 15 times, broke the 60-point mark in seven contests, 70 points twice and the 80-point plateau once.

Meacham coached 2012 first-team All-Big 12 receiver Josh Stewart into one of the best sophomore seasons in OSU history with 101 catches for 1,210 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart's 101 receptions were the fourth-most in school history and his 1,210 receiving yards trailed only Justin Blackmon (Jacksonville Jaguars) and Dez Bryant (Dallas Cowboys) on the all-time OSU list for sophomore wideouts.

Inside receiver Josh Cooper (Cleveland Browns) and tight end Brandon Pettigrew (Detroit Lions) were among other OSU standouts coached directly by Meacham.

Meacham was instrumental in establishing a record-setting offense at Samford. He directed an attack in 2004 that set several school records, including passing yards (2,986), pass completions (256) and completion percentage (59.8).

Prior to Samford, Meacham worked the same kind of magic at Henderson State, where he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During the 2000 season, Meacham coached an offense that broke two Division II national passing and receiving records, four Gulf South Conference marks and nine school passing and receiving records.

Meacham's history of record-breaking offenses, however, began even before his stint at Henderson. Upon joining the staff at Jacksonville State in 1997, the Gamecocks went 7-4 and recorded the biggest turnaround in Division I-AA. During his tenure at Jacksonville State, Meacham's offensive unit broke 21 school passing and receiving records.

Meacham also spent three years as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Military College. He first joined the GMC staff in 1991 and served as offensive line and tight ends coach. In 1994, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and helped guide the school to an impressive 35-8 record during his tenure.

During his playing days at Oklahoma State, Meacham was on teams that participated in four bowl games (1983 Bluebonnet, 1984 Gator, 1985 Gator and 1987 Sun). He was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Cowboys and had a string of 35 consecutive starts. During his Oklahoma State playing career, the Cowboys fashioned an overall record of 34-9.

Meacham earned all-Big Eight honors and was an honorable mention All-American as a senior. He was a captain of the 1987 Sun Bowl team that defeated West Virginia. Meacham blocked for both 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders and two-time Big Eight Player of the Year Thurman Thomas.

In high school, Meacham was a three-year starter and two-time all-district selection at Arlington's Sam Houston High School.

Meacham was born on Dec. 16, 1964, in Arlington, Texas. He is married to the former Kendall Deas and they have three children: Peyton, Cole and Brooks.

SONNY CUMBIE

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

1st Season at TCU
Texas Tech, 2004

Sonny Cumbie joined the TCU football staff as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in December 2013.

Cumbie came to the Horned Frogs after serving four seasons as an assistant coach at Texas Tech. He was co-offensive coordinator and outside receivers coach in 2013.

Cumbie stepped into a play-calling role as interim offensive coordinator when the Red Raiders totaled 429 yards in a 34-31 win over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

In 2012, Cumbie coached a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Darrin Moore and Eric Ward. The 2011 Red Raiders featured the seventh-best passing offense in the nation with 4,145 yards. A total of 13 different receivers had 10 or more catches over the course of the campaign. In Cumbie's first season in 2010, the Red Raiders totaled 4,146 receiving yards and 39 touchdowns.

During his years as a student-athlete at Texas Tech, Cumbie worked diligently and waited patiently for his chance to serve as a starting quarterback. That opportunity came in 2004, when he led the Red Raiders to an 8-4 record. Texas Tech twice reached the 70-point mark. Cumbie capped the season by passing for 520 yards and earning Holiday Bowl Most Valuable Player honors in a 45-31 victory over No. 4 California. The 520 yards remain a Holiday Bowl record. Cumbie finished the season with 4,472 yards passing, the fifth-best total in school history and seventh best all-time in the NCAA. Cumbie received All-Big 12 honors on the field and in the classroom. He has a bachelor's degree in history.

Following graduation, Cumbie went on to play for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. As a rookie in 2006, he started 12 games and set a franchise record for most passes attempted without an interception (252). He was named to the AFL All-Rookie Team and was a finalist for Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. Cumbie was back in the AFL in 2007, passing for 83 touchdowns in leading the Avengers to their first playoff victory in franchise history.

From 2005-09, during the AFL's off seasons, Cumbie served on the Texas Tech Sports Network as an analyst.

After the AFL ceased operations before the start of the 2009 season, Cumbie became the head coach and director of player personnel for the San Angelo Stampede of the Indoor Football League. Four games into the season, Cumbie added starting quarterback to his list of responsibilities. As he did with the Avengers, Cumbie led the Stampede to the playoffs and their first postseason win.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas. They have a son, Grey.

JARRETT ANDERSON

OFFENSIVE LINE

17th Season at TCU
New Mexico, 1993

After coming to TCU as a graduate assistant, Jarrett Anderson is in his 17th year overall with the Horned Frogs.

Anderson became the Horned Frogs' offensive line coach in 2014.

In February 2009, Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons (2001-08).

Anderson helped mentor true freshman B.J. Catalon in 2012 into becoming TCU's leading rusher with 582 yards. Catalon was also honorable mention for Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In both of Anderson's first two seasons as a coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs while also ranking among the nation's most productive units. The Horned Frogs won 25 of 26 games and made back-to-back BCS appearances, including winning the 2011 Rose Bowl.

With Anderson's guidance in 2011, Ed Wesley, Matthew Tucker and Waymon James earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors as all three rushed for more than 700 yards.

In 2010, Anderson helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

As a sophomore in 2010, Wesley ran for 1,078 yards to become TCU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2003. He was a first-team All-Mountain West selection and one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

Wesley, Tucker and James all recorded 100-yard games in the 2010 campaign.

In 2009, the Horned Frogs established previous single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards), touchdowns (65) and first downs (311).

TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Anderson helped mentor Tucker and Wesley into being the Frogs' second- and third-leading rushers with 676 and 638 yards, respectively. Those totals represented the fifth- and sixth-best rushing totals by a freshman in TCU history.

In 2008, Jimmy Young became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference. Young had 988 yards receiving to narrowly miss just the second 1,000-yard season in TCU history. His 59 receptions tied for the fourth-best total on the Frogs' single-season chart.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in eight years were drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006. Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became TCU's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003. During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns. Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

RUSTY BURNS

OUTSIDE WIDE RECEIVERS

6th Season at TCU
Springfield, 1978

Rusty Burns joined the TCU football staff in February 2009.

Burns was named outside receivers coach in 2014.

After serving his first three seasons as wide receivers coach, Burns was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach prior to the 2012 campaign.

In Burns' first two seasons with the Horned Frogs, TCU set school records for touchdowns, points scored, total offense and first downs.

As quarterbacks coach, Burns saw Casey Pachall become TCU's all-time leader in completion percentage (62.9) while ranking third on the Horned Frogs' career chart in completions (431), passing yards (5,415) and touchdown passes (42).

Burns helped tutor Josh Boyce, a 2013 fourth-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, into becoming one of the most prolific wide receivers in TCU history. In just three seasons, while earning his degree, Boyce became TCU's career leader in touchdown catches with 22. His 2,535 receiving yards rank second, while his 161 career catches are third.

In 2010, Burns mentored Jeremy Kerley to a career-high 56 receptions. Kerley also tied Mike Renfro's 1977 TCU record with 10 touchdown catches.

Kerley, a fifth-round draft pick of the New York Jets, and Jimmy Young received All-Mountain West honors.

In his first season with the Horned Frogs, four of TCU's top-six receivers posted reception totals that surpassed their career totals entering the season. Three TCU receivers, Kerley, Antoine Hicks and Young, were named All-MW, while Ryan Christian continued his career professionally with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Burns spent four seasons (2004-07) as the offensive coordinator at SMU. The Mustangs set a school record with 29 touchdown passes in 2006, while their 325 points scored ranked third all-time in SMU history.

Burns has also been an offensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2002-03), Wyoming (1999-01), Memphis (1996-98) and Connecticut (1980-88).

At Cincinnati, Burns directed a record-setting offensive attack in 2002 that helped lead the Bearcats to the Conference USA championship. Cincinnati set school marks for passing yards (3,649 yards), total offense (5,565 yards) and points (409). The Bearcats led C-USA in passing (260.6) and total offense (397.5) per game.

It was Burns' second stint at Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' quarterbacks coach from 1989-91. Burns also served three seasons (1992-94) as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

In his final year at Wyoming, Burns had the most improved offense in the Mountain West.

Burns is a 1978 graduate of Springfield College, where he played quarterback. He also has a master's degree from Springfield. His first coaching position came at his alma mater as he served two seasons as offensive coordinator upon his graduation.

Burns and his wife, Debra, have two daughters: Kelly and Kirsten.

CURTIS LUPER

RUNNING BACKS

2nd Season at TCU
Stephen F. Austin, 1996

Curtis Luper joined the TCU football staff in January 2013 after serving four years as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Auburn. He was on staff for the Tigers' 2010 national championship.

After serving as TCU's wide receivers coach in 2013, Luper was named the Horned Frogs' running backs coach in 2014.

During his time at Auburn, Luper consistently produced some of the nation's highly-ranked recruiting classes. He also helped the Tigers register back-to-back seasons of record-breaking offensive production and a pair of 1,000-yard rushers.

Auburn's rushing attack led the Southeastern Conference and ranked fifth in the nation with an average of 284.8 yards per game during the Tigers' 2010 national championship season. Auburn then set a school record with 3,987 rushing yards in 2011. The 2010 Tigers set team records for points (577) and total offense (6,989 yards) for the second consecutive year.

Luper tutored running back Michael Dyer to an Auburn freshman record 1,093 rushing yards in the 2010 season and Offensive Most Valuable Player honors in the 2011 BCS National Championship Game. Dyer was a Freshman All-SEC selection and second-team Freshman All-American. Dyer rushed for 1,242 yards and 10 touchdowns in the 2011 campaign.

In recruiting, Luper helped bring in classes that were consistently ranked in the top 10 nationally by ESPN, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Auburn signed a consensus top-five class in 2010. For his efforts, Luper was named by Rivals to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the top 10 recruiters in the SEC.

In 2009, the Auburn offense set numerous single-season school records, including points (433) and total offense (5,613 yards). Luper coached running back Ben Tate, now with the Houston Texans, who rushed for 1,362 yards and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Luper served as Oklahoma State's running backs coach from 2005-08. He was also the assistant head coach for player development during his last two seasons with the Cowboys.

Under Luper, the OSU running attack led the Big 12 in rushing each of his last three seasons. As an assistant coach at New Mexico (2002-04), Luper coached the Mountain West's career rushing leader in DonTrell Moore.

Luper began his playing days at Oklahoma State (1984-87). From 1988-92, he served as an air traffic controller for the United States Army.

During his tenure in the Army, Luper spent eight months combined at Fort McClellan in Anniston, Ala., and Fort Rucker near Enterprise, Ala.

Luper completed his eligibility at Stephen F. Austin as an All-Southland Conference running back in 1993 with a team high 1,054 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. He signed with the Houston Oilers following his senior season.

Luper earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Stephen F. Austin in 1996 and master's degree in communications from SFA in 1998. He is working on a doctoral degree in secondary and higher education from Texas A&M-Commerce.

Luper and his wife, Nikki, have three daughters, A'rielle, Charitie and Cheyenne, and two sons, Cameron and Chancellor. Cameron Echols-Luper is a sophomore wide receiver on the TCU football team.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DICK BUMPAS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE LINE

11th Season at TCU
Arkansas, 1973

Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

TCU marks the fifth school that Bumpas and Horned Frog head coach Gary Patterson have worked together. Bumpas first teamed with Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a Kansas State graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff. The duo then worked together the next two seasons (1983-84) at Tennessee Tech. Bumpas and Patterson reunited at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

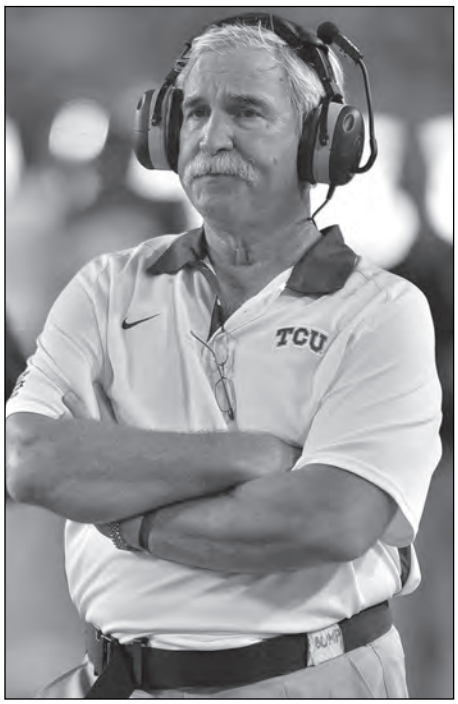
Bumpas was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant, in 2008, 2009 and 2010. TCU led the nation in total defense each of those three years. He has been a finalist for the honor four times in all.

In a coaching career that has spanned nearly 40 years, Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 20 bowl games.

In its first year in the Big 12 in 2012, the TCU defensive line was one of the tops in country, highlighted by All-Big 12 first-team defensive ends Devonte Fields and Stansly Maponga.

With Bumpas' guidance, Fields was named the Associated Press Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and the conference's Defensive Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches. Fields was the Big 12's leader in tackles for loss (18 1/2) and was third in sacks (10).

The TCU defense, with just one senior on its depth chart, ranked first in the Big 12 in total defense (323.9 yards per game) and 16th nationally, despite facing five of the country's top-13 ranked offenses. The Horned Frogs were also No. 1 in the Big 12 in run defense (103.9 yards per game) and opponent first downs (17.3 per game) while placing second in scoring defense, allowing just 23.1 points per game in the high-powered conference. TCU was also second in sacks with 2.17 each contest.



Maponga was a fifth-round draft pick of the Atlanta Falcons in 2013.

Bumpas mentored Horned Frog defensive end Jerry Hughes into being a two-time consensus All-American and the 2009 recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy. Hughes, who had never played on defense until arriving at TCU, was also a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. Hughes became a first-round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts.

Bumpas coached defensive ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to first-team All-Mountain West honors in 2005 and 2006. In 2007, Ortiz became TCU's first three-time first-team all-conference player in 30 years (Mike Renfro, 1975-77).

Bumpas came to TCU after serving as Western Michigan's defensive coordinator for one season.

Bumpas worked at Houston from 1999-02, serving as assistant head coach and linebackers coach and later as co-defensive coordinator, installing the 4-2-5 defense in his initial season.

Prior to his stint at Houston, Bumpas worked four seasons at Navy as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. His 1997 Navy unit ranked sixth in total defense and turnover margin. At season's end, he was invited to coach in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Bumpas spent three seasons (1992-94) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Utah State, helping the Aggies to a 1993 Big West Championship and a Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State. Other coaching stops include two seasons as defensive line coach at Notre Dame (1990-92), during which time he mentored 1990 Lombardi Award winner Chris Zorich. In 1989, Bumpas coached the defensive line at his alma mater, Arkansas, a team that went on to win a Southwest Conference title and advanced to the 1990 Cotton Bowl.

Bumpas coached seven years in the Volunteer state, splitting time between Tennessee (1985-88) as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator and Tennessee Tech (1983-84) as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. While with the Vols, Bumpas coached three bowl championship teams (1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach) and was part of the SEC championship in 1985.

Bumpas began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1977. From there, he went to Army and implemented a new defense under Homer Smith in 1978. Installing new defenses would become a trend for Bumpas, who did the same thing as defensive line coach at Air Force during a two-year tenure (1979-80).

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Bumpas was a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor. He is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

DEMONTIE CROSS

LINEBACKERS

2nd Season at TCU
Missouri, 1997

DeMontie Cross joined the TCU football staff in January 2013.

Cross came to the Horned Frogs after serving as linebackers coach in 2012 at Kansas.

Prior to arriving at Kansas, Cross was the special teams coordinator and safeties coach at Wisconsin in 2011. His coaching experience includes both the collegiate and NFL ranks.

Cross spent five seasons (2006-10) in various positions with the Buffalo Bills. He joined the Bills as a defensive/special teams assistant in 2006 and was then promoted to assistant linebackers coach/special teams for three seasons. He was promoted again in 2010, taking over as the Bills' inside linebackers coach.

Cross made the jump to the NFL after spending the 2001-05 seasons as Iowa State's outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. Cross' unit was a major contributor to the Cyclones' record-setting defenses during his stint. He helped develop Jeremy Loyd into an All-Big 12 performer and future St. Louis Ram.

Cross spent the 2000 season coaching a defensive backfield at Sam Houston State that ranked second nationally in the FCS. The Bearkats' pass defense was led by free safety Keith Davis, who was the Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Davis went on to play six seasons and start 31 games for the Dallas Cowboys.

A St. Louis native and 1997 Missouri graduate with a degree in business management, Cross began his coaching career as the outside linebackers coach (1998-99) at his alma mater.

Cross totaled 415 career tackles at free safety for the Tigers from 1994-96. He led Missouri in stops as a junior and senior. He was second-team all-conference from the Big Eight in 1995 and the Big 12 in 1996.

Cross is married to Jessica and he has two daughters: Jadyn and Sheridan.

CHAD GLASGOW

SAFETIES

13th Season at TCU
Oklahoma State, 1995

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, returned in 2012 as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach following a one-year stint as defensive coordinator at Texas Tech.

Glasgow, a 2010 National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com, was part of a TCU staff that helped the Horned Frogs lead the nation in total defense in each of the final three seasons (2008-10) of his first tenure with the program.

Glasgow made an immediate impact upon his return to the Horned Frogs in 2012. TCU led the Big 12 in defense with all three starting safeties receiving postseason honors. Sam Carter was second-team All-Big 12, Elisha Olabode was an honorable-mention selection and Chris Hackett earned Freshman All-America accolades.

The 2011 Rose Bowl champion and second-ranked Horned Frogs, who topped the country in six defensive categories, became just the third team in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons (Toledo, 1969-71; Oklahoma, 1985-87).

Despite losing two starters in the first two rounds of the National Football League draft and a pair of four-year starters at cornerback, TCU's total defensive numbers improved in 2010 from the previous season.

The Horned Frogs allowed just 228.5 yards per game, 26.2 yards less than runner-up Boise State (254.7).

In addition to total defense, TCU also led the nation in scoring defense (12.0 points), pass defense (128.8 yards), pass defense efficiency (94.9 rating), opponent third-down conversion percentage (24.1) and fewest first downs allowed per game (12.0). TCU's defense also topped the country in three-and-outs per game (6.0).

Glasgow has coached 16 all-conference selections at safety at TCU, including 2010 consensus first-team All-American and Jim Thorpe Award finalist Tejay Johnson.

Seven safeties in Glasgow's last eight years at TCU signed National Football League contracts.

Colin Jones was a sixth-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2011 and a key special teams performer as the 49ers reached the NFC Championship game.

Stephen Hodge, who led the nation in sacks by a defensive back with eight in 2007, was a sixth-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2009.

Hodge and David Roach earned All-Mountain West honors in 2007. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Chargers, respectively.

In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MW and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team All-MW selection.

White and Jeremy Modkins, who signed with the Cleveland Browns as a free agent, were All-MW in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

Glasgow and his wife, Maida, were married in March 2010. The couple has three sons: Brance, Colt and Dayne. Brance and Colt are twins.

KENNY PERRY

CORNERBACKS

2nd Season at TCU
Houston, 1993

Kenny Perry was named TCU's cornerbacks coach in March 2014.

Perry joined the TCU football staff in March 2013 as its director of high school relations and recruiting.

Perry came to the Horned Frogs after serving seven seasons (2006-12) as head football coach at Bowie High School in Arlington, Texas. While there, he coached current Horned Frogs Kolby Listenbee and Steve Wesley.

Prior to his tenure at Bowie, Perry was also head coach at Haltom High School (2004-05) and Arlington Sam Houston (2000-03). He has 22 years of coaching experience.

A three-time District Coach of the Year, Perry was the 2007 Dallas Morning News Coach of the Year. He was also a six-time selection as the Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week. In 2010, Perry was selected to the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association. He has also been the director of the North Texas High School Football Association.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Houston, Perry was a four-year letterman (1988-91) as a defensive back for the Cougars. Perry was a cornerback his freshman and sophomore seasons before being moved to safety his final two years. He also served as a graduate assistant for Houston from 1992-94, working with the special teams and defensive backs.

DAN SHARP
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL-SPECIAL TEAMS

First Season as Director; 21st Overall at TCU
TCU, 1985

One of the more popular players to ever don the TCU uniform, Dan Sharp is in his 14th year during his second stint as a member of the football staff at his alma mater.

Sharp was named director of player personnel for special teams in 2014.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001. He previously coached nine seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

Sharp guided true freshmen Jaden Oberkrom and Ethan Perry to Freshman All-America honors in 2012. Oberkrom was also a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, presented to the nation's top placekicker. Perry's 44.5-yard average ranked 14th nationally and second for a single season in TCU history.

Oberkrom was an honorable-mention All-Big 12 selection in 2013. In his first two seasons at TCU, he had two of the four-longest field goals in school history while tying a Horned Frogs' mark with 79 consecutive extra-points made.

In 2011, TCU was second in the nation in kickoff return average with a 28.2-yard mark. The Horned Frogs returned three kickoffs for touchdowns with Greg McCoy receiving first-team All-America accolades and being the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which went 8-3 and earned a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running game, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. He spent two years in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to TCU in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

DON SOMMER
ASSISTANT A.D. FOR STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

14th Season at TCU
UTEP, 1987

Don Sommer is in his 14th year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001. He was promoted to assistant athletics director in 2011.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all 21 sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). Sommer was named the 2008 National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by footballscoop.com.

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of UTEP with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad before playing professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts. Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

DAVID GABLE
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

12th Season at TCU
Nebraska, 1993

David Gable is in his 12th season as the head athletic trainer for football at TCU and his seventh year as Associate Director of Sports Medicine. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed in the state of Texas.

In addition to his primary responsibility of providing health care for the football team, Gable's additional duties include managing the new 6,000-square-foot Walsh Sports Medicine Center as well as inventory control and purchasing for the Sports Medicine department. He also oversees TCU's summer sports camps and serves as the director of the Gatorade summer camp and the TCU/SMU athletic training workshop for high school students. Gable also serves as a preceptor within the CAATE-approved Athletic Training Education Program through the Department of Kinesiology and manages the Sports Medicine work study program.

Prior to joining the Frogs, Gable spent several years working at HealthSouth Sports Medicine in Birmingham, Ala. He also earned professional experience with the Carolina Panthers (NFL), Kansas City Chiefs (NFL), Florida Bobcats (Arena 1), Birmingham SteelDogs (Arena 2), Birmingham Thunderbolts (XFL) and the Rhein Fire (NFL Europe), where he was the head athletic trainer and part of two world championship teams during his three years in Dusseldorf, Germany.

Gable, a native of Gering, Neb., received his bachelor's degree in education with an emphasis in athletic training from Nebraska in 1993 and his master's in physical education/health and sports sciences from Ohio in 1994. He is also a veteran of the United States Army. He and his wife, Samantha, have two daughters: Kylee and Kamryn.

MATT LEWIS
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Second Season as Ops; 12th Overall at TCU
Marshall, 1996

Matt Lewis is in his second season as TCU's director of football operations and his 12th year overall with the Horned Frogs' program. He previously served as the head athletics equipment manager for the last decade.

Lewis' broad range of responsibilities include office management and administration, game day responsibilities, liaison with various athletic and university departments, team travel and recruiting visitations.

TCU marked Lewis' fourth stop as an equipment manager. He arrived from Iowa State, where he served as head equipment manager for three years following one season as an assistant in charge of football at Wake Forest.

Lewis received his bachelor's degree in sports management and marketing from Marshall in 1996. He was the Thundering Herd's head equipment manager for football from 1995-99.

Lewis formerly served as the associate executive director of the American Equipment Managers of America. He was recognized with the AEMA's Glenn Sharp Award, which is the organization's top honor, in 2010.

A native of Scott Depot, W.Va., Lewis and his wife, Stefanie, have two daughters: Madison and Jordyn.

SUPPORT STAFF

DOMINIQUE NEVILLE
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Second Season at TCU
Auburn, 2010

Dominique Neville joined the TCU football program in April 2013 as the assistant director of football operations.

In addition to helping coordinate team travel, Neville organizes and maintains the recruiting database while serving as the contact for high schools and junior colleges. She is also the liaison to pro scouts.

Neville came to TCU after working as a staff accountant at Ernst & Young in Atlanta, Ga.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Neville has a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's in accountancy, both from Auburn University.

While at her alma mater, Neville worked two years in the athletic department's business office and four years with the football program. She was part of the recruiting/game day operations staff as well as assisting the director of football operations and recruiting coordinator.

Neville was president of the Students of Auburn Recruitment. She was also a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma Business Fraternity and Beta Alpha Psi Honorary Accounting Fraternity.

ZARNELL FITCH
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

First Season at TCU
TCU, 2006

Zarnell Fitch joined the TCU football staff in June 2014 as its director of high school relations.

Fitch was a two-year letterman (2004-05) on the defensive line for TCU before playing two seasons in the NFL. He spent the last three years, including the 2013 campaign as head coach, on the football staff at Lincoln High School in Dallas, where he coached TCU freshman wide receiver Emanuel Porter.

While at Lincoln, Fitch was also a special education teacher.

Fitch graduated from TCU in May 2006 with a communications degree and minor in social work. He then worked as a graduate assistant at TCU in both football and academic services.

After his NFL career, Fitch played an additional two seasons in arena football.

Fitch recorded two interceptions his senior year with the Horned Frogs. The second pick came in his final game, a diving grab in the EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

DR. VICTOR BOSCHINI

CHANCELLOR

11th Year at TCU

Working to provide a world-class, values-centered University experience

Texas Christian University is all about the students. That's the message Chancellor Victor Boschini has emphasized since he arrived here in 2003. It's how the Chancellor and TCU First Lady Megan Boschini set their priorities.

It's why the Chancellor teaches a freshman class every fall and works to ensure that students in this state and across the nation can benefit from a university education, particularly through state and federal financial aid. It's why Mrs. Boschini is committed to enhancing the TCU experience for each student and facilitating the forward momentum of the University.

It's the reason the Boschinis entertain hundreds of students in the TCU Chancellor's residence and attend scores of events annually. That is if they are not traveling across the state and country on behalf of the University, or attending a summer Frog Camp for incoming students in London or Paris.

For the Boschinis, TCU is a family affair. Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini (Honorary TCU Alumna 2010) are parents four Horned Frogs: Margaret (Class of 2018), Edward (Class of 2016), Mary Catherine (Class of 2012) and Elizabeth (Class of 2009).

The couple has had the privilege of being at TCU during a period of unprecedented support from alumni, parents and friends that has enabled the University to create a world-class, values-centered university experience for its approximately 10,000 students.

Following the Vision in Action strategic process, the $434 million Campaign for TCU underwrote an impressive agenda: doubling of scholarship support for talented and deserving undergraduates, construction of more than a dozen facilities, establishment of the John V. Roach Honors College, creation of 11 new endowed faculty positions and a total, donor-funded renovation of the Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Now the University is realizing the next phase of its long-term plans: Vision In Action: The Academy of Tomorrow. As part of this phase, TCU is building an Intellectual Commons on the east side of campus, adding residence halls to meet student demand, enhancing the academic profile of the student body as well as balancing the mix between male and female students, and continuing to increase the curricular and co-curricular opportunities available both on and off campus for our students.

Chancellor Boschini came to TCU from Illinois State University, where he served as president, vice president for student affairs and associate professor in the Department of Educational Administration and Foundations. Prior to that, he held administrative and teaching positions at Butler and Indiana universities.

As a leader in higher education, the Chancellor has a high profile in organizations that benefit students — nationally and in the State of Texas. He recently completed his term as president of the Board of Directors of the Independent Colleges & Universities of Texas (ICUT). He also serves on the board of the Council for International Exchange of Scholars, the organization that works with the Fulbright Scholars program, and the President's Council of The Washington Center, the largest independent, nonprofit academic internship program in the United States. Previously, he chaired the National Association of Independent Colleges & Universities (NAICU), which represents the interests of private colleges and universities across the country.

In addition, Chancellor Boschini sits on the board of the State Farm Company Mutual Funds, as well as the boards of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, the Van Cliburn Foundation and the Moncrief Cancer Institute. Megan Boschini is also involved in a variety of local activities and serves on the boards of directors for the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History and Gill Charity, Inc. She is a frequent participant in events designed to improve the well-being of the greater community.

Both Boschinis are committed to ensuring that they — and TCU — remain good citizens of the University's hometown.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

CHRIS DEL CONTE

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Sixth Year at TCU

Leading TCU Horned Frogs Athletics towards a bright future

Chris Del Conte was appointed TCU's director of intercollegiate athletics in October 2009.

Since his arrival on campus, Del Conte has overseen a series of historic moments in TCU's athletics history. Most notably, the Horned Frogs' July 1, 2012 entrance into the Big 12 and nearly $230 million in construction projects.

A new $164 million Amon G. Carter Stadium opened in September 2012, while a $59 million rebuild of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum began immediately after the 2013-14 season. Almost $6 million combined contributed to the August 2010 opening of the Jane Justin Fieldhouse at Garvey-Rosenthal Soccer Stadium and a new baseball performance center to be completed in Fall 2014.

Other facility projects under Del Conte include the Horned Frogs opening a new football locker room, sports medicine center and equipment room. Within the sports medicine center, TCU is the only school in the nation to have its own cryo sauna. There was also a Spring 2011 expansion of baseball's Lupton Stadium and the Fall 2011 debut of the Physical Performance Center.

In 2013-14, TCU totaled six team or individual Big 12 championships in addition to track and field's Lorraine Ugen winning the NCAA indoor title in the women's long jump. Baseball became one of just 10 programs nationally to reach the College World Series at least twice in the last five years.

The 2012-13 athletics season saw TCU capture three national championships. Rifle won the NCAA smallbore title, while Ugen (women's long jump) and Charles Silmon (men's 100 meters) were individual winners at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

The partnership between TCU, Fort Worth and the Metroplex has never been more evident. In 2013, football sold out of season tickets for the second straight year with a new record total of 31,636. Football, baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, soccer, men's tennis, track and field and volleyball have set either season ticket or attendance records in the last two years.

Fiscal years 2012-13 and 2013-14 have produced the top-two marks in TCU's athletics fundraising history. During that time, TCU supporters have contributed nearly $90 million in total athletics giving, including almost $22 million for the Frog Club. In each of the last two years, and for the first time ever, TCU has been able to cover all scholarship costs for its student-athletes.

During Del Conte's first five years on campus, TCU twice established a single-season school record with six conference championships. During that stretch, nine sports have won league titles (baseball, women's basketball, football, women's golf, men's swimming and diving, men's tennis, women's tennis, women's indoor and outdoor track and field). Sixteen of 20 sports have been represented in NCAA postseason play with 12 teams nationally ranked.

The TCU football program made two straight BCS appearances, including a 21-19 win over Wisconsin in the 2011 Rose Bowl. Additionally, the Horned Frog baseball team reached the College World Series for the first time in program history in 2010, and the rifle team won the 2010 and 2012 NCAA national championship. In 2009-10, TCU was the only school in the nation to play in a BCS game and win at least one game at the CWS.

The success on the playing field has carried over to the classroom. TCU student-athletes have recorded their highest cumulative grade-point average since tracking began in 1998. Fifteen of 20 sports have posted team GPAs over 3.0. TCU's overall Graduation Success Rate for student-athletes is 88 percent.

Over the last five years, three TCU head coaches (Gary Patterson, football; Jim Schlossnagle, baseball; Karen Monez, rifle) have been named National Coach of the Year in their respective sports.

The recipient of the 2010 Bobby Dodd Division I-A Athletic Director's Award, Del Conte was also one of five finalists for the SportsBusiness Journal's Athletic Director of the Year.

During his tenure at Rice, Del Conte had responsibility for 16 intercollegiate programs, 350 student-athletes, along with coaches and staff. Del Conte also designed, developed and managed the Rice Vision for the Second Century Campaign, which raised over $90 million. He secured significant funds to build athletic facilities such as the Tudor Fieldhouse and Youngkin Center for Student-Athlete Excellence, and also raised $4 million for upgrades to the football stadium. Del Conte also secured a marketing sponsorship and broadcast rights contract for Rice and maintained a focus on student-athlete academic achievement, resulting in numerous public recognition awards from the NCAA for the academic progress rate of student-athletes.

Prior to Rice, Del Conte was the senior associate athletics director for external operations and sports programs at the University of Arizona (2000-06). In that role, Del Conte had responsibility for the planning, management and oversight of the day-to-day operation for the department of intercollegiate athletics. He also functioned as the chief financial officer; managed external operations; had oversight and management of all contracts, ticket sales, broadcast rights fees, corporate sponsorships, and trademarks and licensing; and oversight of all facility construction.

Del Conte also served as an assistant athletics director for external operations at both Washington State (1998-99) and Cal Poly (1994-98).

Del Conte served on the North Texas Super Bowl XLV Host Committee and currently assists with the Davey O'Brien Foundation Board and the National Sports Marketing Network Board. His other professional committee involvement and associations include the Division I-A Athletics Directors Association and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

Del Conte received a bachelor's of arts degree in sociology from UC Santa Barbara and a master's of education, administration and supervision from Washington State.

Del Conte is married to Dr. Robin Ward and has two daughters.

TCU	#20 TCU	27

ARLINGTON, Texas - A pair of second-half touchdowns including a key late score helped 12th-ranked LSU hold on for a 37-27 victory over No. 20 TCU Saturday night.

LSU's Odell Beckham's 75-yard kickoff return set up a 20-yard TD pass from Zach Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry with 6 minutes left.

B.J. Catalon returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown and scored on a 26-yard run for TCU.

TCU started in Tigers territory after a shanked 28-yard punt after the three-and-out. But the Horned Frogs' drive was hampered when Trevone Boykin was sacked and fumbled. They recovered the ball, but had to settle for Jaden Oberkrom's 39-yard field goal to get within 30-27 with 7 1/2 minutes left. Then came Beckham's big kickoff return.

Before that, Alfred Blue's fumble set TCU up at the 6. Waymon James' 5-yard TD run made it 30-24 with 13 minutes left.

The Tigers gained 448 total yards against a TCU team known for its defense. The Horned Frogs led the Big 12 in total defense last season.

LSU was up 13-3 when 270-pound fullback J.C. Copeland plunged in from a yard out early in the second quarter.

Catalon returned the ensuing kickoff for a TD, with only one LSU player even getting a hand on the speedy running back. That tied for the second-longest return in TCU history, behind only a 105-yarder against Texas in 1933.

FORT WORTH, Texas - Trevone Boykin led three straight scoring drives as No. 24 TCU pulled away from Southeastern Louisiana 38-17 on Saturday.

Boykin's first play under center was a handoff to Waymon James for the game's first score, a 1-yard plunge.

Boykin then ran 16 yards and Jaden Oberkrom ended the first half with a 46-yard field goal that put the Horned Frogs (1-1) ahead 17-14.

Boykin completed a 29-yard pass to Brandon Carter on the first play of the second half, and Carter finished that drive with a 5-yard scoring run. Boykin threw 27 yards to Josh Doctson for a 31-14 lead.

Southeastern Louisiana's Bryan Bennett had 132 yards passing and another 132 rushing for the Lions (1-1).

Casey Pachall led a pair of scoring drives and finished 8 of 14 for 100 yards. Boykin was 9 of 13 for 133 yards and two touchdowns and added 35 yards rushing before he was replaced by third-stringer Tyler Matthews late in the game.

Bennett, a transfer from Oregon, had a 45-yard run to set up the Lions' first touchdown and threw a 65-yard scoring pass to Jeff Smiley to pull even at 14 late in the second quarter.

TEXAS TECH	20

LUBBOCK, Texas - Texas Tech freshman quarterback Davis Webb threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Bradley Marquez with 3:48 remaining to lead Texas Tech to a 20-10 victory over No. 24 TCU on Thursday night.

The score came after the Red Raiders (3-0, 1-0 Big 12) thought they'd scored on a 49-yard TD pass from Webb to DeAndre Washington, but he dropped the ball at the half-yard line. An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty took them back to the TCU 15. Two plays later, Webb hit Marquez.

TCU (1-2, 0-1) scored when B. J. Catalon ran in from 17 yards to make it 10-all with 6:28 remaining.

TCU's Trevone Boykin went 23 for 36 for 194 yards while adding 101 yards rushing.

FORT WORTH, Texas - Trevone Boykin completed 15 of 26 passes for 228 yards and two touchdowns and TCU's defense forced five turnovers to lead the Horned Frogs to a 48-17 victory Saturday over SMU.

Boykin completed seven of his first nine passes in the second half, tossing touchdown passes of 20 and 56 yards to help the Horned Frogs (2-2, 0-1 in Big 12) overcome a 10-7 halftime deficit.

The Horned Frogs retain the Iron Skillet trophy for the second straight year, and they are 11-2 under coach Gary Patterson in the annual game.

SMU (1-3), which entered the game 10th in the nation in passing, amassed 292 yards of total offense, and quarterback Garrett Gilbert finished 23 of 44 for 276 yards and four interceptions. TCU also had seven sacks, its most since 2009 at Virginia.

TCU's defense stepped up in the second half, forcing six straight incompletions from the former Texas starter and picking up the pass rush. After TCU tied the game at 10 thanks to a 35-yard Jordan Oberkrom field goal, Gilbert was intercepted on the ensuing series by Sam Carter who returned the pick 25 yards to the SMU 32.

After driving inside the 10 following the interception, TCU had a third-and-18 from the 20, but Boykin found Ty Slanina in the left corner of the end zone to put the Frogs up for good.

Boykin led five scoring drives in the second half, which included a 6-yard touchdown run by B.J. Catalon with 10:33 left in the fourth quarter to give TCU 31-10 lead.

NORMAN, Okla. - A late-arriving offense put TCU in a hole against No. 11 Oklahoma and the Horned Frogs weren't quite able to pull themselves out in a 20-17 loss.

Trailing by 13 at halftime, TCU twice pulled within three points but Oklahoma used a late 76-yard touchdown run by Brennan Clay to hold off the Horned Frogs 20-17.

After limiting Oklahoma to eight plays and four yards of offense in the third quarter, TCU pulled within 13-10 on a 2-yard touchdown run by Trevone Boykin. The Horned Frogs had two chances after that to take the lead but punted both times.

Oklahoma took over at its own 18 after the second punt. Clay carried for a 6-yard gain, then broke into the open and outran everyone for his career-long 76-yard touchdown run with 4:37 left. Clay finished with 111 yards on nine carries.

TCU quickly answered, as a 45-yard pass from Boykin to David Porter and a 21-yard screen pass from Boykin to B.J. Catalon led to an 8-yard touchdown scramble by Boykin with 2:26 left. Oklahoma quarterback Blake Bell then ran out the clock, running for a pair of first downs.

FORT WORTH, Texas - Trevone Boykin ran for a touchdown and threw for another as TCU defeated Kansas 27-17 Saturday.

TCU broke a 10-10 halftime tie on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter. Boykin hit David Porter with a short pass. As he ran between two defenders, the Jayhawks ran into each other and Porter was free for a 75-yard touchdown.

The Horned Frogs stretched their lead to 24-10 with a 53-yard drive, capped by B.J. Catalon's 2-yard touchdown run with 9:31 remaining in the third quarter.

Barely 2 minutes later, Jake Heaps threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Jimmay Mundine to cut the Kansas deficit to 24-17.

The Jayhawks (2-3, 0-2) had taken a 3-0 lead on Matthew Wyman's 37-yard field goal 5 minutes into the game. Isaiah Johnson had set up the Jayhawks at TCU's 25 yard line after a turnover.

Boykin then finished a 63-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown run to give the Horned Frogs a 7-3 lead with 6:50 remaining in the first quarter. He also made a 25-yard gain while guiding TCU over 42 yards to Jaden Oberkrom's 44-yard field goal and a 10-3 second-quarter lead.

Boykin finished the game 14 for 22 for 173 passing yards and with 12 carries for 71 yards. Porter had the Horned Frogs' first 100-yard receiving game (4 for 118) since Josh Boyce last season at West Virginia. Catalon ran for a season-high 91 yards on 12 attempts.

TCU's defense held Kansas to 198 yards for the game.

#21 OKLAHOMA ST.	24

STILLWATER, Okla. - Clint Chelf made a case Saturday for why he should again be the starter as No. 21 Oklahoma State pulled out a 24-10 win over TCU.

The senior, playing in his final homecoming game, replaced starter J.W. Walsh after the sophomore threw his second interception of the first half, an ill-advised throw into the middle of the end zone.

Chelf responded after having his first pass intercepted and led the Cowboys on back-to-back scoring drives to help them build a 17-0 halftime lead.

TCU (3-4, 1-3) also switched quarterbacks in the second quarter, but it didn't help as the Horned Frogs struggled in their second trip to Stillwater in as many years.

Josh Stewart added 10 catches for 141 yards and had a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown, giving Oklahoma State enough offense to overcome four turnovers and a pair of missed field goals.

The Horned Frogs got within 17-10 when Waymon James slipped past Oklahoma State defensive tackle Calvin Barnett and scored on a 14-yard touchdown with 7:39 remaining.

However, Rennie Childs' first career touchdown on a 7-yard run with 6:04 remaining ended TCU's hopes of sparking a second-half comeback.

The Horned Frogs briefly found an offensive rhythm when Boykin connected with Deante' Gray for a 69-yard reception with less than four minutes left in the third quarter. TCU lost two yards on its next three plays and had to settle for a 35-yard field goal that cut Oklahoma State's lead to 17-3.

FORT WORTH, Texas - LaDarius Brown's touchdown catch in the first quarter was the lone score for TCU (3-5, 1-4), as the Frogs fell to Texas, 30-7.

There was a weather delay of 3 hours, 6 minutes after officials stopped the game in the second quarter Saturday night because of lightning that was part of an approaching storm. The game resumed just after 11 p.m., and ended after 12:30 a.m. Malcolm Brown ran for two touchdowns, Case McCoy threw for 228 yards with a long score and Texas remained undefeated in the Big 12.

Brown's 3-yard TD run with 9 minutes left in the third quarter gave Texas (5-2, 4-0 Big 12) a 27-7 lead. He also had another 3-yard score more than four hours before that, one play after a TCU fumble midway through the first quarter.

Anthony Fera kicked three field goals for the Longhorns, who remained tied atop the Big 12 standings with sixth-ranked Baylor (7-0, 4-0).

Only a few minutes before the lightning delay started, McCoy hit Marcus Johnson in stride for a 65-yard touchdown that made it 17-7. Johnson had three catches for 120 yards.

Texas took the lead for good midway through the first quarter when Brown scored after quarterback Trevone Boykin's fumble. When TCU got back on the field for its third series, Casey Pachall replaced Boykin. It was the first game for Pachall since breaking his left (non-throwing) arm in the second game of the season seven weeks ago. He got hurt Sept. 7 against Southeastern Louisiana.

TCU	27

FORT WORTH, Texas - West Virginia gave up a 10-point fourth quarter lead to TCU but came back in overtime with a Josh Lambert 35-yard game-winning field goal for a 30-27 victory over TCU.

Charles Sims rushed for a season-high 154 yards and Trickett completed 25 of 41 passes for 267 yards and two touchdowns and two interceptions for West Virginia.

In their overtime possession, the Horned Frogs had minus-5 yards, a 15-yard personal foul and an incomplete pass. Jaden Oberkrom, whose 45-yard field goal tied the game 27-27 with 19 seconds to play, missed a 62-yard attempt in overtime. Oberkrom's career-long field goal was 53 yards.

TCU's 17-10 halftime lead held up until the Mountaineers started to take control in the fourth quarter. During an eight-minute stretch starting at the end of the third quarter, the Mountaineers forced TCU into three turnovers in five plays leading to 17 West Virginia points. On the last score, the Mountaineers took advantage of a short field and went 17 yards in three plays to push the lead to 10 when Trickett found Sims from 13 yards out with 7:11 to go.

But TCU quarterback Casey Pachall - who had an interception and a fumble in that previous stretch - went 12-for-15 on TCU's next two drives. He went 8-for-9 on the first drive, including a 3-yard touchdown pass into the back of the end zone to David Porter to cut TCU's deficit to 27-24 with three minutes left. Jaden Oberkrom would force overtime with a 45-yard field goal with just 19 seconds remaining.

Boykin ran for three touchdowns for the Horned Frogs (4-6, 2-5 Big 12), who remain in contention for possible bowl eligibility with two games left.

The Horned Frogs went 58 yards in just 1:56 - a drive keyed by a 22-yard run from Aaron Green on 4th-and-1, and took a four-point lead on their only score of the second half.

Grant Rohach threw for 148 yards for Iowa State (1-8, 0-6), whose last-ditch effort ended near midfield. The Cyclones have lost six straight.

Casey Pachall threw for 245 yards for TCU.

Pachall drove TCU from its own 1-yard line to the Iowa State 23 with consecutive completions to Brandon Carter and LaDarius Brown. But Jevohn Miller drilled Carter on a third-down play to force out the ball, and Jeremiah George's interception kept the Horned Frogs from a potential game-tying field goal.

Iowa State gave TCU one last chance at its own 42-yard line with 2:34 to go after a poor punt from Kirby Van Der Kamp.

With leading backs B.J. Catalon and Waymon James unavailable, Green led the way for TCU.

Green's 22-yard run put the Horned Frogs at the Iowa State 27. He later got them to the 3-yard line with a 17-yard run, setting up Boykin's game-winner.

KANSAS STATE	33

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Jack Cantele kicked a 41-yard field goal, his fourth of the game, with 3 seconds remaining to give Kansas State a thrilling 33-31 victory over TCU on Saturday.

The Horned Frogs had taken the lead on a 56-yard field goal by Jaden Oberkrom with 2:13 left, but the Wildcats (6-4, 4-3) quickly marched down field. Jake Waters hit Tyler Lockett for 12 yards to convert a third down and hit him again for 8 more yards to get within field-goal range.

Trailing 14-0, TCU (4-7, 2-6 Big 12) finally got going when B.J. Catalon left Kansas State safety Dante Barnett grasping for air on a 15-yard touchdown run. But the Wildcats answered with a 51-yard drive, and they settled for Cantele's field goal for a 17-7 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Trevone Boykin hit Josh Dotson in the back of the end zone from a yard out. Boykin then took advantage of a short field caused by Daniel Sams' fumble to carry 7 yards to the left side on fourth-and-1 for the score.

On third-and-14 from the Wildcats' 21-yard line, Waters hit Tramaine Thompson in broken coverage to give the Wildcats a 24-21 lead, but back came the Horned Frogs. David Porter caught Casey Pachall's 51-yard touchdown pass to give TCU a 28-24 lead late in the third quarter.

Cantele added a field goal to pull within a point, and Kansas State added another field goal to take a one-point lead late in the fourth quarter.

#9 BAYLOR	41
TCU	38

FORT WORTH, Texas. - Bryce Petty threw for two touchdowns and ran for another, Baylor returned two interceptions for scores and the No. 9 Bears hung on for a 41-38 victory over TCU on Saturday.

The Horned Frogs (4-8, 2-7) were in position to tie in the final seconds, but Casey Pachall threw his third interception on a pass tipped by receiver Brandon Carter and grabbed by Baylor's Terrell Burt in the end zone with 11 seconds left.

The first three possessions went nowhere, but the Horned Frogs were in field goal position at the Baylor 23 in the final seconds when Pachall decided to go to the end zone. Sam Holl dove in front of Carter just as the ball reached him inside the 5, and Burt cradled the tipped ball as he crossed the goal line.

Pachall erased some of a 34-17 deficit built on his mistakes with a 4-yard touchdown run and a 16-yard scoring pass to Josh Doctson.

Before the two interception returns, Petty had a 1-yard scoring run after the Bears recovered a fumble at the TCU 1.

Baylor went back in front 41-31 when Petty completed a 26-yard pass to Clay Fuller on third down, then found Levi Norwood on a 33-yard score. Petty had 206 yards passing.

TCU answered when Petty threw just his second interception of the season to Sam Carter, setting up TCU on the Baylor 25. Pachall fooled Stewart with a pump fake for an easy 22-yard score to David Porter on the first play of the fourth quarter to make it 41-38.

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

TCU is ready to embark upon its 117th year of Horned Frog football. Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Frog ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall TCU football squads have done battle on the gridiron.

BEGINNINGS

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA ERA

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Frogs, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

SWC EARLY YEARS

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss.

Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough. They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.

DUTCH MEYER ERA

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frogs grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons and, during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

ABE MARTIN ERA

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

THE 1970s

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

JIM WACKER ERA

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced a result of 1-8-2, but he steered the Horned Frogs Slingin' Sammy Baugh (No. 45) led TCU to its first of two national championships in the 1930s under Head Coach Dutch Meyer.

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Blueb-onnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

PAT SULLIVAN ERA

On Jan. 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

TCU saw a major increase in attendance thanks to its succss on the field in 1994. The increase of 11,062 folks per game (a 42.5 percent increase) was one of the nation's best that season. Sullivan resigned in November 1997 after six seasons at the Horned Frog grid helm.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the university officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frogs program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

DENNIS FRANCHIONE ERA

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, which were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging more than 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards.

The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

CONFERENCE USA

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s. Highlighting TCU's four-year stint in Conference USA was the 2002 CUSA Co-Championship, which the Frogs shared with Cincinnati.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign. The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. The Frogs went 41-7 in their six seasons of MWC play and left the league with 24-consecutive victories in conference play.

GARY PATTERSON ERA

Gary Patterson has posted eight 10-win seasons in the last 11 years, including six 11-win campaigns since 2003. No other head coach in TCU history has reached 10 victories more than twice.

In just 13 years, Patterson owns a 120-44 career record. He passed legendary coach Dutch Meyer for the top position on TCU's career victories list with a win against Grambling

Abe Martin, Gary Patterson, Francis Schmidt, Jim Wacker, Madison Bell, Dennis Franchione, Pat Sullivan, Fred Taylor and F.A. Dry.

State in the 2012 season opener. His .732 winning percentage is second all-time among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt. Patterson has had TCU ranked in the final Top 25 seven times, including four top-15 finishes in the last six seasons.

In his tenure, Patterson has coached 173 All-Conference selections, 16 first-team All-Americans, 17 Freshman All-Americans and two Academic All-Americans. He has had 34 players drafted with 73 in NFL camps. Patterson has been named conference coach of the year three times and was named National Coach of the Year by nine outlets during the Frogs' highly successful 2009 season.

TCU has garnered the country's attention in nearly every season under Patterson, including campaigns that sent the Frogs to the 2010 Fiesta Bowl and 2011 Rose Bowl.

The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930s by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. TCU, which went 8-0 on its way to the MWC title, captured the national spotlight with a perfect 12-0 regular season capped by a No. 4 ranking by both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy.

In 2010, TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It's the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the Associated Press and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU is the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 the last three years.

TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010 and has now finished first in that category more times (five) than any other program since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937. Individually, senior Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center. Safety Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

The 2010 campaign proved to be the culmination of several successful Frog seasons in the decade of the 2000's under Patterson. The 2003 Frogs won their opening 10 games, while the 2005 squad opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma on its way to an 11-win season. TCU recorded victories in the 2002 Liberty Bowl, 2005 Houston Bowl, 2006 Poinsettia Bowl, 2007 Texas Bowl and 2008 Poinsettia Bowl leading up to their first BCS appearance in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. The 95-29 record compiled by the Frogs in the 2000's ranked No. 7 nationally.

Despite losing 26 seniors to graduation off his Rose Bowl championship team, Patterson led a 2011 TCU squad to a third consecutive Mountain West championship. It marked the first time the Horned Frogs won a conference title in three straight seasons. TCU was also the first team in MWC history to win the league championship in three consecutive campaigns.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

TCU began its inaugural season in the Big 12 in 2012 and won its first conference game Sept. 15 at Kansas. The Frogs added league victories over Baylor, West Virginia and Texas before finishing the season with a 7-6 overall record. Patterson led the team to the postseason for the eighth straight year, a matchup against Michigan State in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

The Frogs continued their tradition of strong defensive play in 2012, leading the Big 12 in total defense and ranking second in scoring defense. Defensive end Devonte Fields and cornerback Jason Verrett were selected as first-team All-Americans by several outlets, while Fields was the Associated Press Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

In TCU's second year in the league, the Frogs battled through injuries to down Iowa State and Kansas, respectively. TCU once again had one of the best defenses in the conference, placing second by allowing 356.4 yards per game.

TCU IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

1929 (NO. 7)
TCU's first Southwest Conference championship team, led by halfback Cy Leland, quarterback Howard Grubbs and All-America guard Mike Brumbelow, finished the season undefeated (9-0-1) and was placed No. 7 in the nation in an unofficial AP ranking. The familiar AP poll of today was not originated until 1936.

1932 (NO. 4)
The undefeated Horned Frogs (10-0-1) rose to true national prominence in '32 as they romped through the Southwest Conference race with ease and wound up No. 4 in the country in the final rankings of Illustrated Football magazine, the game's leading authority of the era. Six members of the starting line, anchored by All-America guard Johnny Vaught, were named all-conference, as were both halfbacks, Blanard Spearman and Red Oliver. When Pittsburgh was invited to the Rose Bowl over TCU, the Frogs tried to arrange a post-season game against Tulane, another highly regarded team, but nothing came of it.

1933 (NO. 9)
Coach Francis Schmidt produced three teams in the nation's Top 10 during his five seasons at TCU. The 1933 squad was the third. Paced by halfback Charlie Casper, the Frogs rolled to a 9-2-1 record but closed fast with stunning victories over Texas (30-0), Rice (26-3) and SMU (26-6). This finish impressed the syndicated sportswriter Grantland Rice so much he put TCU No. 9 in the final national rankings of his popular annual ratings service known as Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

1935 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
As a TCU lineup produced two All-Americans for the first time – quarterback Sammy Baugh and center Darrell Lester – the Frogs reached the zenith of a national championship in the thrilling season of '35. The Frogs were tabbed No. 1 after the bowl games by the Williamson Rating System, the most authoritative poll in the land at the time. TCU wound up No. 1 after its 3-2 victory over powerful LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Frogs' only loss had been a narrow one (20-14) to SMU in "The Game of the Century." But when the Mustangs were upset by Stanford 7-0 in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, the same afternoon that TCU whipped LSU in New Orleans, Williamson crowned TCU No. 1.

1936 (NO. 5)
Injuries, freaky upsets and a couple of foul-weather scoreless ties couldn't keep Sammy Baugh from repeating as an All-American and leading the Frogs to No. 5 in the nation in the final Williamson Rating System. Along the way, Baugh knocked off conference champion Arkansas, rudely upset the nation's last remaining perfect-record team, Santa Clara, and then won a duel with Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Classic. All of that left the Frogs with a 9-2-2 record.

1938 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
A dream season. This incredible Frogs team handily went 11-0, including the 15-7 victory over No. 5 Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. TCU captured every meaningful No. 1 ranking – AP, Williamson, Helms – turned out eight all-conference players on various selections, and three All-Americans, quarterback Davey O'Brien, center Ki Aldrich, and tackle I.B. Hale. O'Brien received the Heisman, Maxwell and Camp trophies. As the true national champions, the Frogs outpolled three other undefeated elevens in '38 – Tennessee, Oklahoma and Duke.

1941 (NO. 10)
Quarterback cohorts Kyle Gillespie and Emery Nix led the Frogs to a 7-2-1 record with the aid of All-America tackle Derrell Palmer and all-conference end Bruce Alford. Their only losses were to top-10 teams, No. 6 Fordham and No. 9 Texas A&M. But later, Nix sparked TCU to a memorable 14-7 upset of No. 1-ranked Texas. Ultimately, at the end of the regular season, the Williamson Rating System thought highly enough of the Frogs to rank them No. 10 in the nation. They became the first Southwest Conference team to play in the Orange Bowl, where they lost a wild one to Georgia, 40-26.

1951 (NO. 10)
Sophomore Ray McKown, running and passing out of the old Dutch Meyer spread formation, carried the Frogs to their most surprising conference title with only a 6-4 record. Still, these Frogs were ranked No. 10 in the nation in the UPI poll at the season's end. In so doing, McKown earned All-America honors, as did Keith Flowers and tackle Doug Conaway. In the Cotton Bowl game, TCU outgained Bear Bryant's Kentucky team by a huge margin, but saw no fewer than five drives stall inside Kentucky's 10-yard line, and were outscored, 20-7.

1955 (NO. 5)
Jim Swink set rushing and scoring records galore as the Frogs loitered the whole season among the nation's elite and won the Southwest Conference championship. In the end, with a 9-1 regular season record, they were ranked No. 3 by the Litkenhouse System, No. 5 by UPI, and No. 6 by AP. Swink was a unanimous All-America halfback and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and center Hugh Pitts also made All-America.

1958 (NO. 9)
The Frogs breezed to an 8-2 record and the conference crown behind the passing of Hunter Enis, the running of Jack Spikes and Marvin Lasater, and the line play of All-America tackle Don Floyd. TCU was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll and No. 10 by the AP. In the Cotton Bowl game they fought undefeated and No. 6-ranked Air Force to a 0-0 tie.

1959 (NO. 7)
These Frogs basically put three All-Americas on the field with fullback Jack Spikes and tackles Don Floyd, a repeat selection, and Bob Lilly, who would be a unanimous choice in '60. They bruised their way to another 8-2 record, tying Texas and Arkansas for the conference title. When all the votes were in from the final polls, TCU was ranked No. 7 by AP and No. 8 by UPI.

2000 (NO. 18 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 21 AP)
LaDainian Tomlinson became one of college football's greatest ball carriers – only the second player in history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and more than 5,000 in a career. Behind "LT," the Frogs sped to a 10-2 season record and the WAC championship. This performance enticed the Dunkel Index, one of the eight selectors for the Bowl Championship Series, to rate the Frogs No. 7 in the nation, their highest ranking in 40 seasons.

2002 (NO. 22 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 23 AP)
After a season-opening overtime loss at Cincinnati, the Frogs reeled off 10 wins in their next 11 games. The Frogs gained a share of the Conference USA title and posted an AXA Liberty Bowl win over Colorado State. Linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, the league's Defensive Player of the Year, led a squad that ranked first in the nation in both total defense and in stopping the run.

2003 (NO. 24 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 25 AP)
The Frogs reeled off 10 straight wins to open the season, climbing as high as No. 10 in the national rankings. Their success, which included five three-point wins, caught the attention of the nation, as they moved to sixth in the BCS standings, the highest ranking ever for a school from a non-BCS conference. A late season loss at Southern Miss kept the Frogs from winning their second-straight conference title. The Horned Frogs hosted nationally-ranked Boise State in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and dropped an exciting 34-31 contest. Nick Browne was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned All-America accolades. Defensive end Bo Schobel set a school record for sacks while earning second-team All-America honors from the AP. Head coach Gary Patterson was one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honors.

2005 (NO. 9 USA TODAY; NO. 11 AP)
TCU (11-1, 8-0) closed the season ranked ninth by USA Today for its highest appearance in a final poll since finishing seventh in the 1959 campaign. TCU opened and closed 2005 with victories over Big 12 bowl teams, winning at Oklahoma and then defeating Iowa State. In its first season of Mountain West Conference play, TCU became just the third team in league history to post an undefeated record (8-0). In the process, TCU captured its first outright league championship since sweeping through the Southwest Conference en route to the 1938 national title. TCU paced the Mountain West Conference with 18 all-conference selections with Cory Rodgers a consensus All-American at kick returner. Gary Patterson was the MWC Coach of the Year with tailback Aaron Brown named Freshman of the Year. Linebacker Jason Phillips and defensive end Tommy Blake were Freshman and Sophomore All-Americans, respectively.

2006 (NO. 21 USA TODAY; NO. 22 AP)
TCU (11-2, 6-2) posted its fourth 10-win season in the last five years. The Frogs became one of just five teams in the nation to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. The Frogs finished the campaign ranked 21st by the AP and 22nd in the USA Today poll. It represented the fifth time in the past seven years that TCU closed the season in the top 25. The Frogs ranked second nationally in total defense (234.9 yards per game) and run defense (60.8 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU was one of three teams nationally to not allow a 100-yard rushing game by an opposing running back.

2008 (NO. 7 USA TODAY; NO. 7 AP)
TCU finished with its highest national ranking in half a century when it appeared at No. 7 in the final release of the AP and USA Today polls. The Frogs reached 10 wins for the fifth time in seven years with an 11-2 record. The only losses came at the hands of then-No. 2 Oklahoma, which played in the BCS Championship Game, and Utah, the nation's only undefeated team at 13-0. A Poinsettia Bowl win over previously-unbeaten Boise State capped off the season. The Horned Frogs featured the nation's top-ranked defensive unit in 2008, leading the nation in total defense for the third time in nine seasons by surrendering just 217.8 yards per game, in addition to topping the country in run defense (47.1 ypg). Junior defensive end Jerry Hughes was a consensus first-team All-America selection after leading the nation with 15 sacks and six forced fumbles.

The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930's by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls for its best end-of-season ranking since the 1938 national title season following a 17-10 loss to Boise State in the Fiesta Bowl. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history, while Patterson was honored with nine different National Coach of the Year awards. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy, while quarterback Andy Dalton was named MWC Offensive Player of the Year. The Hughes-led defense led the nation in total defense (239.7 ypg) for the fourth time in the decade, while the Frog offense broke school records for points scored (38.3 ppg) and total offense (456.7 ypg).

TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It's the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the AP and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU is the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 the last three years. TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010 and has now finished first in that category more times (five) than any other program since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937. Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center, while Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

2011 (NO. 13 USA TODAY; NO. 14 AP)
Bolstered by a win at No. 5 Boise State, TCU posted its fourth-straight top-15 finish in both polls in 2011. The Frogs are one of just four schools to finish in the top-15 of both major polls over the last four seasons. The Horned Frogs opened the year No. 14 in the Associated Press poll and No. 15 in the USA Today. TCU fell out of the polls after a loss to SMU, but closed the year with eight-straight wins, including a 31-24 triumph over Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl. Its biggest win of the season came Nov. 12, when TCU went on the road and defeated No. 5 Boise State. In snapping Boise State's 35-game home winning streak, TCU paved the way for its third-straight Mountain West title.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season. Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's first undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7. The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Walter Camp, Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

THE IRON SKILLET: TCU-SMU SERIES

During the post-World War II college football boom, the TCU and SMU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost. In 1993, the tradition was revived as SMU defeated TCU, 21-15. The skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

BOWL HISTORY

1936 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 3, LSU 2 · Jan. 1, 1936

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives..

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

1937 COTTON BOWL
TCU 16, Marquette 6 · Jan. 1, 1937

DALLAS — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage..

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 15, Carnegie Tech 7 · Jan. 2, 1939

NEW ORLEANS, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

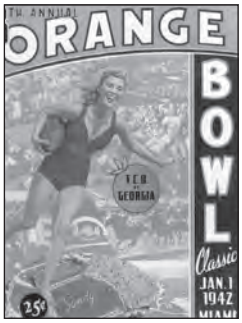
1942 ORANGE BOWL
Georgia 40, TCU 26 · Jan. 1, 1942



MIAMI, Fla. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL
Oklahoma A&M 34, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1945

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely outclassed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards .

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception.

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

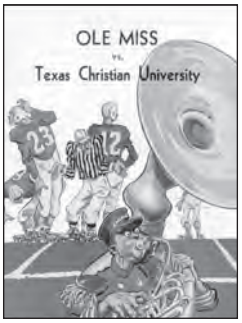
1948 DELTA BOWL
Ole Miss 13, TCU 9 · Jan. 2, 1948



MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes...and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game.

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

BOWL HISTORY

Kentucky 20, TCU 7 · Jan. 1, 1952

DALLAS — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 halftime lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

DALLAS — The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

TCU 28, Syracuse 27 · Jan. 1, 1957

DALLAS — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

BOWL HISTORY

1959 COTTON BOWL
Air Force 0, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1959

DALLAS — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone.

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

Clemson 23, TCU 7 · Dec. 19, 1959

HOUSTON — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White.

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

1965 SUN BOWL
Texas Western 13, TCU 12 · Dec. 19, 1965

EL PASO, Texas. — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29.

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out.

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

1984 BLUEBONNET BOWL
West Virginia 31, TCU 14 · Dec. 31, 1984

HOUSTON — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the postseason classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

1994 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
Virginia 20, TCU 10 · Dec. 28, 1994

SHREVEPORT, La. — A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs resurfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs.

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

1998 SUN BOWL
TCU 28, USC 19 · Dec. 31, 1998

EL PASO, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

BOWL HISTORY

1999 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL
TCU 28, East Carolina 14 · Dec. 22, 1999

MOBILE, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites.

That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half. It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

2000 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL
Southern Miss 28, TCU 21 · Dec. 20, 2000

MOBILE, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

HOUSTON — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture .com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

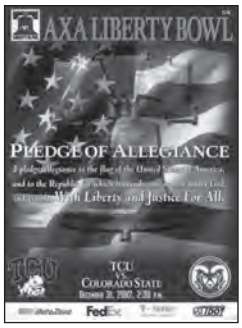
BOWL HISTORY

2002 AXA LIBERTY BOWL
TCU 17, Colorado State 3 · Dec. 31, 2002



MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

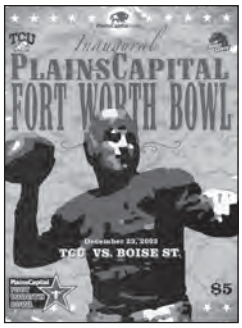
2003 PLAINSCAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL
Boise State 34, TCU 31 · Dec. 22, 2003



FORT WORTH — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

#14 TCU 27, Iowa State 24 · Dec. 31, 2005

HOUSTON — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span. The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left.

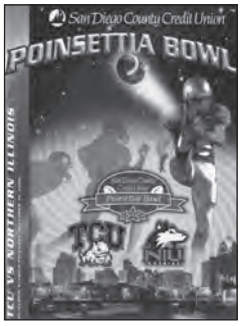
2006 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL
#25 TCU 37, No. Illinois 7 · Dec. 19, 2006



SAN DIEGO — Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

2007 TEXAS BOWL
TCU 20, Houston 13 · Dec. 28, 2007

HOUSTON — Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 marked the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival. He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed. It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

#11 TCU 17, #9 Boise State 16 · Dec. 23, 2008

SAN DIEGO — Joseph Turner dove into the end zone for the winning score, and LaDainian Tomlinson went nuts on the sideline.

Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, during a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

BSU was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250.

BOWL HISTORY

2010 FIESTA BOWL
#6 Boise State 17, #3 TCU 10 · Jan. 4, 2010

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters. It was the first time two schools from leagues without automatic BCS bids have met in one of college football's biggest bowls.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about 9 minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from 2 yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002.

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt by Brotzman. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the 2, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go.

TCU took over at its own 1 with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat. Thompson set up the winning drive with his second interception of the game. He returned his first pick 51 yards for the game's first score.

TCU's touchdown came on a 30-yard pass from Dalton to Curtis Clay that pulled the Frogs to within 10-7 at halftime.

2011 ROSE BOWL
#3 TCU 21, #5 Wisconsin 19 · Jan. 1, 2011

PASADENA, Calif. — Andy Dalton threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19 over fourth-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday.

Bart Johnson caught an early TD pass and recovered a late onside kick for the Mountain West champion Horned Frogs (13-0), who followed up their second straight unbeaten regular season by busting the BCS in dramatic fashion.

Dalton passed for 219 yards for TCU, which won't win the national title - that will go to either Auburn or Oregon. They meet in the BCS championship game in nine days.

Luke Shivers' 1-yard TD run put TCU ahead 21-13 early in the third quarter, but neither team scored again until Wisconsin mounted a 77-drive in the waning minutes. Montee Ball rushed for a 4-yard score with 2 minutes to play, but Carder made a perfectly timed leap at the line to bat down Scott Tolzien's throw to the end zone. The intended receiver was open in the end zone.

Dalton went 15 for 23 and rushed for a first-quarter score, winning the game's offensive MVP award. But the defense deserved the credit for hanging on when TCU couldn't score in the game's final 26 minutes.

Carder was the leader all game and the man at the end.

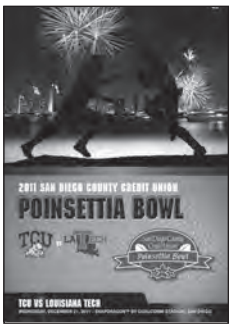
#16 TCU 31, La. Tech 24 · Dec. 21, 2011



SAN DIEGO - Casey Pachall and the TCU Horned Frogs are headed to the Big 12 Conference on an eight-game winning streak.

Pachall highlighted a record-setting game with a 42-yard touchdown pass to Skye Dawson with 4:26 left to lift No. 16 TCU to a 31-24 victory against Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl on Wednesday night.

It was the eighth straight victory for Mountain West Conference champion TCU (11-2), which moves to the Big 12 next year. It was the third time this season TCU overcame a fourth-quarter deficit to win, including a 36-35 victory at Boise State on Nov. 12, the Broncos' only loss.

Pachall was 15 of 29 for 206 yards. He set school single-season records with 228 completions, 2,921 yards and a completion percentage of 66.5, breaking marks previously held by Andy Dalton.

On the winning play, the sophomore took the snap in the shotgun and Dawson ran past safety Chad Boyd to pull in the long pass.

The Horned Frogs, who beat Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl last season, had hoped to make it to a BCS bowl for the third straight season.

2012 BUFFALO WILD WINGS BOWL
Michigan State 17, TCU 16 · Dec. 29, 2012

TEMPE, Ariz. — Dan Conroy kicked a 47-yard field goal with 1:01 left, Le'Veon Bell ran for 145 yards, and Michigan State rallied to beat TCU 17-16 in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Michigan State labored through the first half before going on a 90-yard march capped by Connor Cook's 15-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Burbridge in the third quarter. The Spartans recovered a muffed TCU punt at the 4-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, and Bell scored two plays later by racing around left end for a 14-13 lead.

Bell, who entered the game as the nation's third-leading rusher, had nowhere to go early on. Filling holes inside and stringing plays out toward the sidelines, TCU stuffed the back on nearly every touch, holding him to 38 yards on 11 carries in the first half. MSU produced only three first downs and 76 total yards in the opening stanza.

The Frogs started gashing the Spartans for decent-sized chunks with their option midway through the first quarter, setting up Matthew Tucker's 4-yard touchdown on an end-around.

Oberkrom followed with a 47-yard field goal and added another from 31 yards after Trevone Boykin hit Josh Boyce on a 61-yard pass to put TCU up 13-0 at halftime. Boykin threw for 201 yards for TCU.

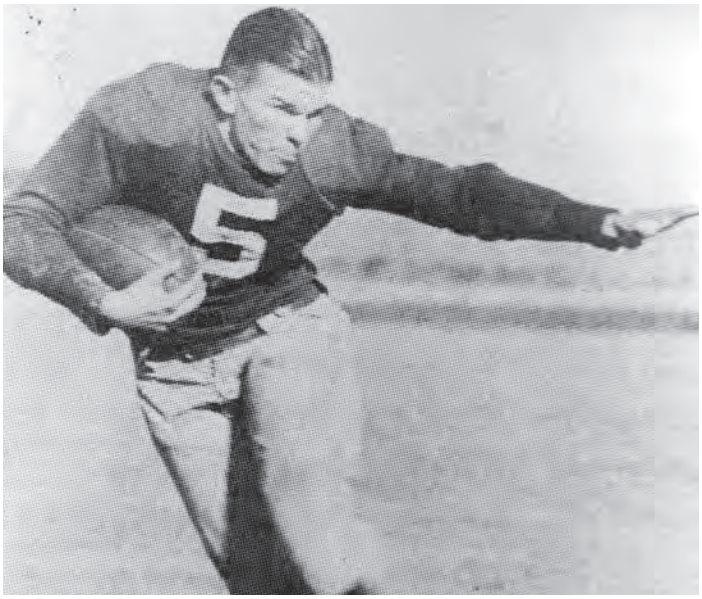
ALL-TIME LEGENDS

RAGS MATTHEWS (1925-27)

Raymond (Rags) Matthews became the first player in TCU football history to earn All-America honors in 1927, during his second straight All-Southwest Conference season as an end. Matthews was somewhat of a rags to riches story. A product of Polytechnic High School of Fort Worth, he was regarded as a big and awkward but unusually aggressive recruit. As a sophomore, he was used at guard. Prior to his junior year, Rags was shifted to end. He became the third person in TCU annals to earn varsity letters in four sports. Before picking up his diploma, Matthews had numerals for football, basketball, baseball and track. "The Raggedy Man," as he was called by some scribes, made a reputation for himself and his school with his taunting, verbal challenges to opposing players.

CY LELAND (1928-30)

Cy Leland stands out as one of the most successful multi-sport athletes in TCU history, as he ranks as one of the school's best both on the football field and on the track. An All-Southwest Conference halfback on the Frogs' 1929 unbeaten conference championship team, Leland rushed for 100 yards four times in his career and three times in 1929. His 13 rushing touchdowns that season stood as a school record for 26 years, while his 17 career scores sat at the top of the TCU career charts until 1956. He led the nation in 1929 with a 7.2 yards per attempt rushing average, and his 93-yard punt return for a touchdown against Baylor that season remains the school record. Despite his football exploits, Leland's crowning athletic achievment came on the track, as he tied the world record in the 100-yard dash with a mark of 9.4 seconds at the 1930 Kansas Relays.



JIMMY LAWRENCE (1933-35)

Jimmy Lawrence may be the most underrated player in the history of Frogs football, playing his most brilliant football in the shadow of the great Sam Baugh. Lawrence had three great seasons for TCU, leading the team in rushing in 1933 and 1935 and in scoring in 1934 and 1935, while also tying as leading receiver in 1935. The native of Harlingen, Texas, was described as "the heart of the Frogs' power attack and one of Sam Baugh's best targets in the forward pass." Primarily a halfback, Lawrence also served as the team's punter and played safety on defense. He was named All-Southwest Conference as a sophomore and as a senior. Legend has it that he would have made it as a junior if he hadn't punched out the umpire in a game that season. Lawrence played professionally for the Chicago Bears from 1936-38 and for the Green Bay Packers from 1939-41.

DARRELL LESTER (1933-35)

One of TCU's all-time two-way line performers, Darrell "Iron Man" Lester carved his niche into SWC football lore during the early 1930s. Called "Iron Man" because of his burning desire to play every second, Lester anchored the Horned Frogs football team from 1933 to 1935, winning a total of 30 ball games, including captaining the 1935 12-1 squad. A native of Jacksboro, Texas, the 220-pound Lester not only was a consensus-choice All-American selection in 1934 – the university's first ever– but he repeated those honors after the 1935 season, becoming the Southwest Conference's first two-time All-America player (1934 and 1935). Lester helped TCU to a stirring 3-2 Sugar Bowl victory over LSU. Lester performed for a pair of seasons with the Green Bay Packers (1937 and 1938) before a shoulder injury forced his early retirement from the sport. A founder of the Bluebonnet Bowl, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

DUTCH MEYER (HEAD COACH 1934-52)

L.R. (Dutch) Meyer ranks as one of college football's true coaching legends, leading the Horned Frogs as head coach from 1934 to 1953 and then as the director of athletics from 1950-63. Under his guidance, the Frogs won two national championships (1935 and 1938) and a trio of Southwest Conference titles. During that 20-year period "The Saturday Fox" – a master of the major upset – helped TCU to a 138-82-15 record as well as posting an 85-71 varsity baseball mark. An innovator, inspirational orator and football tactician of immense talents, Meyer introduced to college football the spread offense, thus enhancing the passing game with the help of two of the greatest passers in the game: Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh. Meyer spent his entire career at TCU, gaining the nickname in the Fort Worth area of "Mr. Football." He began his Horned Frog career as the freshman coach in 1923 before gaining the head coaching position in 1934. He led TCU to seven bowl games.

SAM BAUGH (1934-36)

Perhaps no other player made a more powerful impact on football in the Southwest than did Slingin' Sammy Baugh of TCU during the 1930s. A flawless passer, a dandy punter and a gifted defensive back, the angular Baugh was called by Dutch Meyer "the greatest athlete I ever saw." Generally considered the first of the great passers in college football, all Baugh did was rewrite the SWC and TCU passing and punting record books and sprinkle in a few interception (not thrown but caught) marks for good measure. Some of his school records stood for over 50 years. In three years (1934-35-36), Baugh, whose jersey was formally retired by TCU in 1993, deftly helped the Horned Frogs to 29 victories, a Sugar Bowl crown and a Cotton Bowl title. The Sweetwater, Texas native was a unanimous two-time All-SWC selection and a consensus All-American in 1936. He later became a nine-time All-Pro during his 16 illustrious seasons with the Washington Redskins. Baugh is a member of every collegiate and professional football hall of fame.

JOHNNY VAUGHT (1934-36)

Rare individuals come along who leave their Hall of Fame marks on the gridiron as both a player and coach; former TCU great Johnny Vaught managed to pull it off, captaining the Horned Frogs' 1932 conference championship and heading the Ole Miss football program for a quarter century. From 1930-32, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors twice and consensus All-America honors as a guard. Vaught, the first genuine All-American footballer developed and displayed on the Fort Worth playing fields, served as a standout lineman for the Horned Frogs teams during the 1930-31-32 campaigns. He helped the team to a 28-4-2 record and its second-ever SWC championship under the leadership of Coach Francis Schmidt. Vaught began his coaching career at North Carolina from 1936-41. In 1946, he assisted at Ole Miss for a year before moving up to head coach in 1947. In his 25-season tenure with the Rebels, 18 of his teams went to bowl games, 10 rated in the nation's Top 10, and four ranked among the top five. He led the school to six Southeastern Conference titles and compiled 190 victories before retiring in 1970. An election to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame followed soon after in 1979.

DAVEY O'BRIEN (1936-38)

Davey O'Brien became the first person to win the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell trophies as the nation's outstanding football player. After directing the Horned Frogs to the national championship in 1938, he was the first winner of the coveted Heisman to come from the Southwest Conference. He did it all – running, passing, place-kicking, returning kicks, punting and intercepting passes. O'Brien held national records for number of punts returned in a season (58 in 1937); total punt and kickoff returns in a season (72 in 1937); and total punt returns in a career (116). He held many other passing and total offense records that slowly have been broken through the years. He led the nation in passing both in 1937 and 1938, and was the tops in total offense across the nation in 1938. The Horned Frogs' amazing quarterback threw a touchdown pass in every game in 1938. He played all but 14 minutes of the entire 1937 season.

KI ALDRICH (1936-38)

"Aldrich is probably the greatest defensive center in history." That's the way LIFE magazine described TCU's center-linebacking demon, Charles "Ki" Aldrich, following the 1938 season when the Horned Frogs won the national championship. Aldrich, the 5-11, 198-pounder from Temple, Texas, had been a consensus All-American (after earning some first team A-A honors the previous season) that year, plus he was named all-Southwest Conference for the third time. He was considered so important to TCU that his teammates named him MVP of the team, a surprising feat when one considers that it was Davey O'Brien who became the Southwest Conference's first Heisman Trophy winner that same season. Many years later, former Horned Frog teammate and one-time childhood neighbor, Sam Baugh, said of the phenomenal Aldrich: "Ki was absolutely the toughest player I was ever around." After being drafted in the first-round of the 1939 draft, Aldrich played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and the Washington Redskins. He was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1960.

I.B. HALE (1936-38)

The physically impressive I.B. Hale was hailed as the "greatest lineman in America" by famed sportswriter Francis Wallace in 1938. As well as serving as team captain, the 6-2, 245-pound Hale anchored the offensive and defensive lines from his tackle spot for the Frogs' 1938 national championship team. He gained All-America honors in both 1937 and 1938, as well as all-SWC recognition both his junior and senior seasons at TCU. Hale, whose brilliant college career spanned both the first-ever Cotton Bowl (TCU vs. Marquette in 1937) and the 1939 Sugar Bowl, had been a teammate of Davey O'Brien at Dallas' Woodrow Wilson High School. After his career at Frogland, Hale was a first-round pick in the NFL. Later a high school coach, a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and a top-rated Southwest Conference football official prior to his death in 1971, Hale was inducted posthumously into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1985.

LINDY BERRY (1946-49)

It was only natural for a guy named after that famed aerialist Charles Lindbergh to become one of the best passers in the nation. So, it was no surprise to some when Lindy Berry became just that in the late 1940s. After gaining second-team all-Southwest Conference honors as a sophomore, Berry saved the best for last, making the first all-league teams as a junior, and as a senior, when he capped his career with prominent All-America mention in 1949. Berry led Southwest Conference football in both rushing and total offense as a junior during the 1948 season and found himself as the busiest back in the nation with his 324 total offensive plays. He ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in total offense. Captain as a senior, Berry again paced the SWC in total offense, ranking third in the nation. Although known mostly for his offensive fireworks and feats, Berry was quite a defensive star, too. His interception of a Texas pass in the fourth quarter of the 1949 game near the TCU goal enabled the Horned Frogs to hang on for a 14-13 upset.

ABE MARTIN (HEAD COACH 1953-66)

Othol "Abe" Martin led the Frogs to a 74-64-7 record over 14 season prior to serving as TCU athletics director for a decade from 1966 through 1975. A founding member of TCU's Southwest Conference dominance, having played on the first TCU team to win the SWC championship in 1929, Martin began his TCU coaching career as the head coach of the freshman football team in 1945 before his promotion in 1953 following the Dutch Meyer era. Truly a player's coach, Martin's TCU ballclubs won three SWC crowns and played in five post-season bowl games, including victories in three Cotton Bowls. Also, some of the university's greatest football players — Jim Swink, Don Floyd, Bob Lilly, Hugh Pitts, Norman Hamilton, Jack Spikes, and Tommy Joe Crutcher just to name a few — were produced during the Abe Martin era. Seven of them claimed All-American honors, and more than a dozen all-Southwest Conference recognition. Martin was named SWC Coach of the Year in 1955 and 1958.

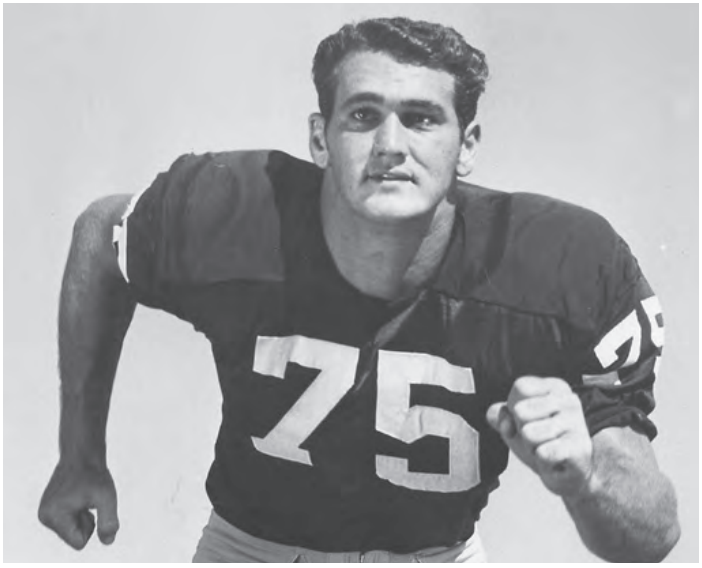
JIM SWINK (1954-56)

Few players in the history of college football have enjoyed as much success against one team as Jim Swink did against the rival Texas Longhorns during his three-year stint of 1954-55-56. During that three-game series, Swink did practically everything to the Longhorns except barbecue Bevo, rushing for an average of 168 yards per game while scoring 19 points per contest. He averaged 13.3 yards every time he carried the pigskin from scrimmage against the Horns. The "Rusk Rambler" is still regarded as one of the greatest running backs ever to play for TCU and in the SWC; his great games were numerous, with his gliding, side-stepping running style. As a junior in 1955, he was the nation's leading scorer and second-leading ground gainer, totaling 125 points and rushing for 1,283 net yards. A two-time All-American, Swink finished runner-up for the Heisman Trophy for his performance that season and was later named to the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. Half a century later, Jim Swink's legend still surrounds TCU.

DON FLOYD (1957-59)

The fabulously-gifted Don Floyd was the stalwart of TCU's stellar forward walls of the 1958 and 1959 campaigns. By clearing massive paths for such standouts as All-American Jack Spikes and all-SWC Marvin Lasater on offense, and while supplying some punishing stops on the other side, Floyd helped the Horned Frog gridders to a pair of conference crowns and two consecutive bowl showings. Floyd, a product of Midlothian, Texas, captured all-Southwest Conference and All-America honors at tackle in both his junior and senior campaigns, including consensus All-America credentials in 1959. Floyd's impressive two-way performance versus Texas in 1958, clearing a major hurdle in TCU's drive to the Cotton Bowl, earned him Associated Press National Lineman-of-the-Week honors. Floyd helped captain the '59 team. Although not overly large for his position (he played college ball at 6-3 and 220 pounds), Floyd played for eight NFL seasons (1960-67) with the Houston Oilers.



BOB LILLY (1958-60)

It is somewhat debatable whether Bob Lilly's collegiate football career or his professional one was more impressive since both were absolutely superb tenures of Hall of Fame proportions. A member of the all-time SWC Dream Team, this great from Throckmorton was the main thrust behind the 1958-59-60 Horned Frog teams which captured two Southwest Conference titles, plus appeared in the 1959 Cotton Bowl, as well as the Bluebonnet Bowl the following season. Lilly was a consensus All-America choice in 1960. And in the spring of 1961 he became the Dallas Cowboys' first-ever draft choice. He would later go on to earn the nickname "Mr. Cowboy." For 14 seasons, nine times as an All-Pro, Lilly terrorized the National Football League as a dominating defensive tackle. He became Dallas' first member of the "Cowboy Ring of Honor" and was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1980. Lilly was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994.

MICHAEL REEDER (1994-97)

The top place kicker in TCU history, Michael Reeder set a new standard for Frogs in the department from 1994 through 1997. The 1995 Lou Groza Award winner as the nation's top kicker, Reeder led the NCAA in field goals as a sophomore, drilling 23 field goals on 25 attempts to claim consensus first-team All-America honors. He concluded his TCU career owning school records for points by a kicker (259), field goal attempts in a season (25) and a career (76), field goals made in a season (23) and a career (57) and consecutive PATs made (79). Reeder drilled a school-record 57-yard field goal in 1996 against UTEP that still ranks as the longest in TCU history and overall owns three of the seven longest kicks ever made by a Horned Frog. He was named to the TCU Letterman's Association Hall of Fame in 2009.

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON (1997-2000)

LaDainian Tomlinson was an unheralded player coming out of Waco's University High when he arrived on the Fort Worth campus in 1997. Early in his junior season, he rushed for 269 yards against Arkansas State, then followed that up two weeks later with a 300-yard performance against San Jose State. L.T. later galloped into the national spotlight with an NCAA record 406 yards on 43 carries with a school-record six touchdowns vs. UTEP. He grabbed the 1999 national rushing title with 1,850 yards, just ahead of Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne of Wisconsin. L.T. not only repeated as the NCAA rushing champion in 2000, but also became the first back in school history to gain 2,000 yards on the ground. His 2,158 yards as a senior was the fourth-highest single-season total in NCAA history at the time, while his 5,263 career rushing yards ranked sixth. Tomlinson was a finalist for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, finishing fourth, and was the winner of the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back. Tomlinson carried that success with him to the NFL with the San Diego Chargers, as he was selected fifth overall in the 2001 NFL Draft.

JERRY HUGHES (2006-09)

Jerry Hughes put the cap on one of the most dominating careers ever for a TCU defensive player in 2009, when he became only the second two-time consensus first-team All-American in school history. Hughes helped put a face on a Frog defense that dominated the decade of the 2000s. TCU led the nation in total defense an NCAA-best four times in 10 seasons. Hughes emerged as a major force for TCU as a junior and finished his career with 26.5 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss over the last 26 games of his career. A breakthrough 2008 campaign, featuring a nation-best 15.0 sacks, put him in the national spotlight, and he followed with 11.5 more sacks as a senior to help lead TCU to a perfect 12-0 regular season and a berth in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. Hughes, who won the Lott Trophy and the Ted Hendricks Award as a senior, was selected with the 30th overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. He currently owns the Nos. 2 and 3 single-season sack totals in school history. He is tied for second in career sacks with 28.5.

ANDY DALTON (2007-10)

The holder of every major TCU passing record, Andy Dalton had a 42-7 record as a starting quarterback. He is the Horned Frogs' all-time leader in wins, breaking the previous mark of 29 held by Slingin' Sammy Baugh (1934-36). Dalton was the Horned Frogs' career leader in completions (812), attempts (1,317), completion percentage (61.7), passing yards (10,314) and touchdown passes (71). His career interception percentage (2.3) ranked as the third-lowest mark among active quarterbacks in 2010. The Katy, Texas, native rushed for 1,611 yards and 22 touchdowns in his career. The 22 rushing scores are the most by a quarterback in TCU history while placing seventh overall on the Horned Frogs' all-time list. A 2010 finalist for the Manning Award, Johnny Unitas Award and Bobby Bowden Award, Dalton was also a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award. He finished ninth in Heisman Trophy voting. Dalton was a two-time Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year. He set TCU single-season records with a 66.1 completion percentage and 27 touchdown passes in his final season. Dalton concluded his TCU career as the Rose Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player in the Horned Frogs' 21-19 win over Wisconsin. It was his third bowl game MVP award. Dalton was the 35th overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

JAKE KIRKPATRICK (2007-10)

Jake Kirkpatrick was the anchor of TCU's offensive line that enabled the Frogs to set single-season school records for touchdowns (73), points scored (541), first downs (327) and total offense (6,199 yards) and win the Rose Bowl in 2010. He was the recipient of the 2010 Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's top center, and was also the lone offensive player to be one of four finalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award. Under Kirkpatrick's leadership, TCU ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards). The Frogs tied for fifth in fewest sacks allowed, surrendering just nine in 13 contests (0.7 per game). In his senior season, Kirkpatrick was named a first-team All-American by Walter Camp and Sporting News. Kirkpatrick, who set the blocking scheme on each play for the Horned Frogs, did not commit a penalty or allow a sack in his senior year. He started every game for TCU in 2009 and 2010, including the program's first two BCS bowl appearances.

ALL-TIME LEGENDS/HEISMAN TROPHY

JASON VERRETT (2011-13)

A first-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2013, cornerback Jason Verrett was selected in the first round of the 2014 National Football League Draft, the 25th player overall, by the San Diego Chargers.

Verrett, a two-time first-team All-American, was tabbed the 2013 Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the conference's head coaches. He was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist and Lott IMPACT Trophy quarterfinalist. Verrett was also the State's Defensive Player of the Year by Dave Campbell's Texas Football.

Despite not many balls being thrown his way in his final campaign, Verrett led the Big 12 and tied for sixth nationally with 1.5 passes defended per game (two interceptions, 14 pass breakups). Over his final two seasons in a Horned Frog uniform, he topped the nation with 38 passes defended (eight interceptions, 30 pass breakups).

HORNED FROGS IN THE HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

In the 70-year history of the Heisman Trophy, five TCU players have finished in the top-five in voting for the prestigious trophy.

Sammy Baugh finished fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented.

In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award.

Jim Swink finished second in 1955, while Kenneth Davis was the next Frog to receive serious consideration for the honor in 1984 when he finished fifth.

In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson placed 14th as a junior. He was fourth after his senior season in 2000.

Quarterback Andy Dalton was ninth overall in the Heisman voting after the 2010 season.

TCU celebrates Davey O'Brien's historic Heisman Trophy in the Encke Heritage Center, which is located directly outside of the Frogs' football offices.
